Surah Ash-Shu‘ara, Chapter 26

In the Name of God the Compassionate, the Merciful

Verses 1 – 10

1. *Ta, Seen, Meem.*¹

2. These are the couplets of an open book.

3. Perhaps you are going to give up your life for their not embracing faith.

4. And if We willed, We would have endowed such signs, as would have forced their necks to bow down.

5. And not a fresh advice comes to them from God but against which they turn away their faces.

6. Of course, they have falsified them. They will be informed about the results of their ridiculing (on the Day of Judgment).

7. Have they not seen upon Earth how We grow from soil the various kinds of vegetations².

8. Verily there are signs in it³

9. Although many of them do not realize it.

10. And when your Lord called out to Musa, saying: Go to the unjust people,⁴

Moral

Self-evident to show the difference in mental attitudes being duped in worldly pleasures and getting blind-hearted, and God's intentions are not to force guidance upon any but to leave it to freedom of will, under warning of future accounting.

Verses 11 – 33

11. "The people of the Pharaoh: will they not fear Allah?"⁵

12. Moses replied, "I fear, certainly I shall be falsified.

13. “It pains me, and besides I cannot speak fluently, so send Aaron with me.

14. “Besides, I have his charge against me (of killing a person). I hesitate, he will put me to death on that account.”

15. God said, “Never mind. Better you both go with (gifts of) my miracles. I am seeing and watching you (the spectacle)

16. “Go to Pharaoh and tell him ‘We are messengers, of course, from the Providence of the world.’

17. “So, better send with Providence of the world.”

18. Pharaoh said, “Did I not cherish you when you were a child and you spent (12 years) with us?

19. “And you acted as you wanted and you are ungrateful (for having killed my baker.”

20. He said: I did it then while I was of those unable to see the right course;⁶

21. “I fled from you out of fear and now God has endowed on me religious knowledge and selected me as one of His Messengers,

22. And is it a favor of which you remind me that you have enslaved the children of Israel?7

23. Then Pharaoh said, “Which is your Providence of the World?”

24. Moses said, “Providence of the Heavens and Earth and of in between, if you have faith (in the unseen).”

25. Pharaoh, addressing his nobles about him said, “Look at him, do year what he says.”

26. Then Moses said, “Your Providence and that of your preceding forefathers.”

27. “Verily, your Prophet which is come to you is a mad chap,” (said Pharaoh).

28. Moses said, “Providence of the East and West and things between, if you have common sense.”

29. Pharaoh said, “If you take anybody else (as your god) besides me, I shall imprison you.”

30. Moses said, “Shall I put forth any proof before you⁸? ”

31. Pharaoh said, “Alright, bring if you are true?”

32. Thereupon, Moses cast his rod (on the ground) and it was converted into an open serpent.

33. And Moses took out his arm, then it began to dazzle (the eyes of spectators).

Moral

As the translation has been made with clear explanation interpolated under bracket, it does not require considerable annotation, except to observe the idea of God in those days, was still limited to physical objects, and it was not possible for them to conceive God as invisible, Self-sufficient, Omnipotent, Omniscient, Deity (He having no attributes of creation).

It was for this reason Moses was asked to produce physical testimony in support of his being divinely inspired. This was later misinterpreted as magic, when actually magicians admitted it could no longer be magic as magic, during sleep is ineffective, whereas Moses' rod was guard to Moses during sleep.

Verses 34 – 51

34. Pharaoh said to his courtiers, “Moses is a skilful magician.”

35. And, “He wants to expel you from your country with the help of his magic. What is your decision?”

36. They said to him to give time to Moses and Aaron and send couriers into town

37. in which they may bring skilful magicians to you.

38. All the skilful magicians were assembled in a festival.

39. And it was publicly advertised to attend the show.

40. If the magicians over-powered Moses, the public should follow them.

41. When all the magicians came, they prayed to Pharaoh to decide what their reward would be if they proved successful?

42. Then he said, “Certainly you would be my courtiers.”

43. Moses said, “Cast what you want.”

44. They cast ropes and sticks and said, “Upon Pharaoh, we will overcome him.”

45. Then Moses cast his rod and they saw it swallowing what they had fabricated (under jugglery).

46. When they undeniably fell into prostration.

47. And they said, “We believe in the Providence of all worlds.

48. “We believe in the Providence of Moses and Aaron.”

49. Then Pharaoh asked why they believed Moses before his permission? Of course (under suspicion) he said he is your leader who has taught you magic. Shortly the will come to know the result of their deed. “I shall cut off your hands and legs cross-wise and hang you on a scaffold.

50. Then they said, “Never mind. We shall revert to our Providence.

51. “And it is our wish in which God forgives our sins, and we are first to believe in God.”

Moral

1. This is a convincing proof how an open mind, though having erred on unsound principles, when subjected to test, admits unsoundness of his principles to the truth. The magicians realizing the unsoundness of the jugglery with which they had over-powered the public at large, when brought to display their tricks, before the Divine Representative, found they could no longer stand the test and submitted to God despite Pharaoh's threat to hang them on the scaffold, whereas Pharaoh, being impassioned in worldly power, could not overcome his passion, and remained misguided to his own destruction proving "to reign is worth ambition, though in hell.

2. This shows, despite our Prophet's threatening his companions, who were similarly drowned in love of worldly power, could not check themselves after his demise, ad submitted to passion, sacrificing eternal gains under misguidance to their own loss.

Verses 52 – 68

52. And We revealed unto Moses to hurry up with My creatures as he would be persecuted.

53. And Pharaoh sent courtiers to collect forces from all towns.

54. And said (to his courtiers), "Verily these are few.

55. "And they are certainly offending us

56. "And we shall fall upon them in terror."

57. So We ejected them from their gardens and canals.

58. And treasures and palaces.

59. Thus We made Bani Israel their inheritors.

60. They started persecution in the early morning.

61. Moses' followers saw them and said, "Lo! We are overtaken."

62. Moses said, "Never. God is with me and shortly shall He guide me (the way out of it)."

63. And We revealed unto Moses to strike the rod on the sea, when it split the sea up into 12 paths, each separated by huge walls of water.

64. The chasing persecutors approached them.

65. We saved Moses and all who were with him.

66. And drowned the persecutors.

67. Verily, in this is a sign (of secret Divine help) though most do not believe in it.

68. Of course, your Providence is Almighty and Merciful.

Moral

It is a fine example confirming “houses of tyrants are deserted.” The most imperious masters over their own servants are, at the same time, most abject slaves to the servants of other masters. A king rules as he ought, a tyrant as he lists, a king to the profit of all, a tyrant only to please a few.

Verses 69 – 104

69. And read out to them the history of Abraham.

70. When Abraham asked his uncle and his tribe whom they are worshipping.

71. They said, “We worship idols and before whom we kneel down.”

72. Upon which Abraham asked, “Do they hear you when you call them?

73. “Or do they profit you or injure you?”

74. They said, “Nothing of the sort you say, but we saw our forefathers so doing.”

75. Abraham said, “Do you know whom you worship.

76. “And whom your forefathers worshiped?

77. “Certainly they are my enemies except the Providence of the Worlds, Who created is my True Friend.

78. “Who created me, and Who alone guides me.

79. “And it is He Who feeds me and waters me.

80. “And when I fall ill, He cures me (i.e. when I commit sin, He forgives me, on penance).

81. “He Who shall give me death and enliven me.

82. “And it is He Whom I pray to forgive my sins on the Day of Judgment.

83. “Oh my Creator, grant me religious philosophy and (raise me) by including me with the righteous.

84. “And grant me a true tongue in my posterity.⁹

85. “And make me an heir to Paradise.

86. “And forgive my uncle’s sins; of course he has been misled.¹⁰

87. “And when people shall be re-enlivened by You, do not disgrace me.

88. “When neither property nor sons will profit (any).

89. “Except those who come with pure heart.¹¹

90. “And Paradise will be brought close to the righteous.

91. “And the gates of Hell will be opened to the misguided.¹²

92. And they will be asked whom they worshipped.¹³

93. Barring God¹⁴is any going to help you or pray intercession on your behalf?

94. And then these religious leaders and their followers will be hurled into it

95. with the devil and his army all combined into hell.

96. And wherein they will litigate among themselves.

97. And will swear by God, “We were open to misguidance.

98. When we made you equal to the Lord of the worlds;¹⁵

99. “And none but the culprits misguided us.

100. “And there is neither any for us (today) to intercede.

101. “Nor any sincere sympathizer.

102. “And if we can go back into the world, we shall be faithful.”

103. Of course, there is a sign in this but most do not believe.

104. Of course, your Providence is Almighty and Merciful.

Moral

1. From couplets 92 to 104 are entirely and absolutely applicable to the Prophet's followers, i.e. unauthorized religious commanders who took an unfair advantage of Ali's busy engagement in the Prophet's obsequies, under plea of maintaining peace by holding selection for Khilafat in Bani Saquifa, in spite of the fact Ali's succession the Prophet was already proclaimed in the Valley of Khum under Divine sanction. There could be no danger when control of God is mightier than all other arms joined. This requires faith, which the leaders lacked.
2. This shows how ignorant they had been or faithless in God's Omnipotence due to love world to win power. They forgot past experiences of crusades, wherein, every time, the field was under Divine control, and none but the Prophet's companions, except Ali, as a Divine Light, could hold the field under sway.

Verses 105 – 122

105. The people of Noah also rejected the messengers.

106. Recall when Noah, their brother, told his tribe “Do you not fear God?

107. “I am your trustworthy Prophet.

108. “Fear God and obey me.

109. “I do not ask any wage and my wage is with the Creator of the world.

110. “Fear God, and obey me.”

111. They said, “Shall we believe in you when only mean folk follow you?”

112. Noah said, “I have no knowledge of their doings.

113. “Their account is with my God, if you do understand.

114. “I am not going to forsake the faithful (because they are fools in your eyes).

115. “I am only a warner.”

116. They said, “If you do not desist, we shall stone you to death.”

117. Noah prayed to God in which is tribe had falsified him.

118. In which He should decide between them and him and relive him with his faithful.

119. Thereupon We relieved him with those with him on board the ark.

120. And then We drowned the rest.

121. Verily there is a sign¹⁶ in this although most do not believe.

122. Of course, your Providence is Almighty and Merciful.

Moral

Every Prophet, after establishing sole sovereignty of God on the Day of Judgment, when He shall judge their deeds, demanded his obedience from them as a Divine Light. And if anybody turned away was an associate condemnable to Hell. And as the devil, after being cursed had been given an opportunity in recognition of his services (to repent for his sin of condemnation) so also those of the Prophet's followers, who associated were being given relaxation to do penance. Do not judge people from the outward worldly position, but look in their acts, which will expose their faith. Did not the Prophet repeatedly state his Ahl al-Bayt (Divine Lights) were like Noah's ark he, who boarded the ark, i.e. followed the Divine Lights, would attain salvation.

Verses 123 – 140

123. The tribe of 'Ad falsified its prophet.

124. When his broth Hud said, “What! Are you not afraid of God?

125. “Verily, I am your trustworthy prophet (being Divine Light).

126. “Fear God and obey me.

127. “I do not ask any wage and my wage is with God, Providence of the World.”

128. Are you building on elevated plots, high buildings leaving signs?

129. And have been erecting strong buildings, as though to live forever?

130. And when you start punishing any, you play the devil with him.

131. “Fear God and obey me.

132. “Fear Him Who helped you in your needs, known to you.

133. “Helped you with animals and children.

134. “With gardens and canals.

135. “Verily, I am afraid of the punishment of the Great Day for you.”

136. They said, “It is all the same to us whether you advise us or withhold.

137. “This is an old way of dealing.

138. “And we are not going to be punished.”

139. They falsified him and were destroyed. Of course, in this there is a sign¹⁷ though most do not believe.

140. Verily your Providence is Almighty and Merciful.

Moral

Gist of the paragraph, as of the Text is “entertain Divine Awe and follow Divine Light” being trustworthy, if salvation is desired, for he who dies without knowing Divine Light of his age, dies the death of an infidel.

Verses 141 – 159

141. The tribe of Thamud falsified their prophet.

142. Their brother, Salih said, “Are you not afraid of God?

143. “Verily I am your trustworthy prophet.

144. “Fear God and obey me.

145. “I do not ask you any wage, my wage is with my Providence of the world.

146. *Will you be left secure in what is here;*¹⁸

147. “in the midst of gardens and fountains?

148. “Of fields and dates growing in a bunch.

149. And buildings on hills cut from rock out pride?

150. “Fear God and obey me.

151. “And do not follow the advice of mischief mongers.

152. “Who have no intention to maintain peace on Earth.”

153. They said, “You are nothing but bewitched.

154. “You are no more than a man like us. If you are true, bring us some miracles.”

155. He said, “Here is a she-camel for who is the water of the tank on alternate days, when you drink on that day her milk, and tank water, the following day for yourself.

156. “Do not injure her; else punishment of the great day will over-take you.”

157. They cut down her udders and were among the regretful.

158. Punishment in the form of shriek seized them. Verily, in this there is a sign for the faithful to avoid participation in killing the innocent although most do not believe.

159. Of course, your God is Almighty and Merciful.

Religious Moral

Imam Hussain reminded Yazid's forces about his being Lord of Paradise as declared by the Prophet and warned them from participating in his innocent murder. But they killed his six months' old child, Ali Asghar with an arrow, falsifying him and thus rendered them fit to be avenged, under Divine justice on Resurrection. Such regret is natural and is no compensation of heinous acts.

Verses 160 – 175

160. Lot's tribe falsified its Prophet.

161. When their brother Lot said, “Are you not afraid of God?

162. “Verily I am a trustworthy prophet.

163. “Fear God and obey me.

164. “I do not ask you an wage, my wage is with God the Creator of the world.

165. “What, do you approach with evil intention, men of the world?

166. “And give up what God has created you for, as your mates (in females). Rather, you are transgressors.”

167. They said, “If you do not desist, oh Lot, we shall drive you out of our country.”

168. Lot said, “Verily your action is disgusting.”

169. So he prayed to God to save him and his family from their wicked action.

170. So, We saved him and his family entirely,

171. except the old lady (his wife) who was to remain behind.

172. And We destroyed the lags.

173. And We sent down stones, bad was the downpour for the wicked.

174. Verily there is a sign though most do not believe.

175. And of course, your Providence is Almighty and Merciful.

Moral

Fear God, obey Divine Light, avoid evil society.

Verses 176 – 191

176. Woodlanders falsified their Prophet.

177. When Shu‘ayb addressed them, “Are you not afraid of God?

178. “I am a trustworthy messenger to you.

179. “Fear God and obey me.

180. “I do not ask any wage, my wage is with God, Providence of the world.

181. “Measure fully and do not under-measure.

182. “Measure with scale-pans on a level line.

183. “And do not put men to loss and spread sedition on Earth.²⁰

184. “Fear God Who created you and your predecessors.”

185. “They said, “You are bewitched.

186. “You are only a man like us, and we count you among the liars.

187. “Throw upon us from Heaven a meteor if you are true.”

188. He said, “My God knows your actions.

189. They falsified him and the disaster in fiery clouds seized them. Verily this was the punishment of the Great Day.

190. Of course, there is a sign²¹ in it but most do not believe.

191. Your Lord is the Mighty One, the Merciful.

Moral

Social justice has to be maintained with entertainment of Divine Awe, following in the footsteps of Divine Lights.

Those capitalists who do not pay tithe and allowed luxurious life to their children have forfeited the right to paradise unless they do penance.

In the world the welfare state has retaliated, under pressure of economic conditions by levy of a super tax, death duty, and finally, depriving them of a managing agency, which they wanted for their extravagant sons. Physiological, psychological, social, and economic proceed from neglect of moral philosophy but religious philosophy, if neglected, will result in condemnation to hell.

Verses 192 – 227

192. And verily this Text is revealed by the Creator of the World

193. through a trustworthy angel

194. Gabriel being revealed to your heart to make you a warner

195. in a clear Arabic tongue.

196. And verily it has reference in previous Texts.

197. Is it not a sign to them that the learned men of the Israelites know it?22

198. Had We revealed it to some of the Persians

199. So that he should have recited it to them, they would not have believed therein.²³

200. We have ruled into the heart of the culprit

201. (due to their obstinacy) they will not believe in it until they see the terrible punishment.

202. And the punishment shall come suddenly, when they will be unaware.

203. When they will pray, if they can be granted time (to rectify).

204. So, are they hurrying up with Our punishment.

205. Think! If We let them enjoy life for some years

206. and then the promised punishment fell upon them,

207. of what avail would their past enjoyment be to them?

208. Never have We destroyed a town without sending down messengers to warn it.

209. This is an advice and We are not tyrants.

210. And it is not revealed through devils

211. neither is it deserving of them, nor have they capacity (to bear it).

212. Rather, they have been kept away from hearing (angels).

213. Do not associate anyone with God (in your cult) lest you will be in those who will be punished.

214. And warn your near relations.

215. Be mild to those who follow you among the faithful.

216. If they disobey, say you are away from their acts.

217. And depend upon Almighty the Merciful.

218. Who has been seeing you while you are (are prayers).

219. And while you were being transferred from one womb of a faithful to another.²⁴

220. Verily He is mighty at Hearing and Knowing.

221. Shall I say on who come the devils?

222. On all sinful liars,

223. who listen to them, and most of them are liars.

224. And the misguided follow the (infidel) poets.

225. Do you not see they move in every valley of varying subjects pertaining to love and the like (away from Truth).

226. And of course they talk what they do not do

227. except those who are faithful and act virtuously and remember God immensely and revenge only when they are tormented. Shortly, the tyrants²⁵shall see how they are turning their sides in hell.

Moral

In couplet 214 as per Divine Commands the Prophet invited his Quraish relations for three days successively feeding all, fully on a cup of flesh of gravy, with bread, offering his succession to any who helped in his Divine mission. These included: Abu Talib, Abu Lahab, Hamza, Abbas, etc. None came forward except Ali. Hence, his selection to succession practically dates with that period – Vide Maalimul-Tanzil.

Novel reading is deprecated as misguiding and must be discouraged, as dealing with subjects against religion and facts.

1.“Ta” stands for “Shajar-ut-Tuba”, i.e. for Tree of Paradise in the Prophet’s mission. “Seen” stands for “Extreme Margin of the Prophet’s ascension (Sadartul-Muntaha). “Meem” stands for Muhammad.

2.so are men of various mental attitude.

3.Of God’s existence, else the matter alone would reproduce uniform products.

4.And of course your God is Almighty and Merciful.

5.Recall when your Providence commanded Moses to go to the disobedient tribes of Pharaoh, warning them, “Are you not afraid of God?”

6.Moses said, “I did it when I missed my way (and that too, I did it, with a view of preventing the mischief) of your baker, by boxing a blow on his back, which brought about (his) death, with any intention on my part.

7.(Had it not been for your killing the sons of Bani Israel on their birth on account of which my mother placed me in a box, which was picked up by you) for which you lay a debt of gratitude on my head, and you have made slaves of Bani Israel (s this your tyranny or gratitude)?”

8.in support of my claims in which the Providence is not visible.

9.Which is the tidings in Ali, who was Truth personified.

10.As his uncle had promised to embrace Islam, so Abraham used to pray forgiveness for him, but later on, when he was convinced it was otherwise, he avoided him.

11.Without any worldly attachment.

12.This refers to our Prophet’s sect.

13.Followed in cult as their guidance or representatives of God Almighty.

14.i.e. barring Divine Lights.

15.“When were We ranking you equally with (Divine Lights) as authorized representatives of Providence of the worlds.

16.For the faithful to follow Divine Lights to attain salvation.

17.for the faithful to entertain Divine awe and follow Divine Light.

18.What, do you think you are going to live here with property and everything else in which God has given you, forever

19.i.e. warning in this for the faithful not to disobey Divine Light and not to practice evil.

20.This is caused by unjust treatment of men without keeping merit in view. The result is dissatisfaction, which brings about a revolution.

21.A warning for the faithful not be unfair in dealing with sub-ordinates.

22.What! Have they not a sign with them when they learned scribes of Ban Israel (viz. Abdus Salam) and others have released and certified its authenticity?

23.and had We read out to them, they would have believed in it (him) Divine Light is a text personified. - This proves the superiority of the Persians over Arabs in intelligence.

24. This proves the faithful parentage of the Prophet.

25. The tyrants deprived the Ahl al-Bayt of their rights.

Surah An-Naml, Chapter 27

In the Name of God the Compassionate, the Merciful

Verses 1 – 14

- 1. *Ta, Seen.¹ These are the couplets of the Holy Qur'an and clear Text
- 2. *in which are guidance and tidings for the faithful
- 3. *those who are saying prayers, paying tithe, and are certain (believer) of eternity.
- 4. *Verily those who do not believe in eternity have their acts eulogized (in their eyes) whereby they are blinded.
- 5. *Those are the people who shall have intense punishment and be greatest who shall have intense punishment and be greatest sufferers in eternity.
- 6. *And verily you are being instructed on the Qur'an from God, the Wise and Omnipotent.

7. Recall when Moses told his wife, “Verily I have seen fire burning. I shall go there and fetch you news thereof or bring burning charcoal to warm yourself.”²

8. When he reached the spot, he was shouted and informed, “Whatever is here and about the fire is all surrounded with Divine Grace and blessings from God the Creator of the worlds, Who is pure of everything.”

9. “Oh Moses, I am God the Almighty and the Wise.

10. “Cast your rod.” When he saw it moving like a quick serpent, he ran (out of fright) and did not look behind. When he was shouted, “Do not be afraid. Verily My messengers do not get frightened.”³

11. Except who disobeys and then if he replaces it by virtues, (i.e. does penance and wipes off his failings). Verily I am Forgiving and Merciful.

12. Put your hand in your pocket ad take it out white (shining) without any disease. These two are (amongst nine miracles) to be produced before Pharaoh ad his tribe. Verily they are disobedient.

13. And when came Our miracles distinctly to them, they said, “It is pure magic.”

14. And they began to dispute them, despite being certain4within themselves merely, out of disobedience and transgression. Just imagine what has been the fate of the seditious.

Moral

1. Fear your acts by seeking self-defects in thought, word and action.
2. Let your acts be to gain your eternity.

Verses 15 – 31

15. Verily We had endowed on David and Solomon knowledge and they said, “Thank God for His having made us superior to most of the faithful.”

16. And Solomon inherited David and said, “Oh my people, we have been taught languages of birds and given something of everything. Verily this a clear Divine Grace.”

17. And before Solomon, the entire regiment of giants, men, birds, used to marshal out.

18. And (thus it marched) until once they passed the valley of ants, when the head of ants said, “Get into your holes lest Solomon and his regiment may crush you unawares.”

19. Upon which Solomon smiled and prayed, “Oh God, befit me to thank You for every bounty which You have endowed on me and on my father and to act virtuously as to please You and to admit me, out of Your Grace, in the group of virtuous people.”

20. Once Solomon took roll call of his army of birds and remarked, “What is up, I do not find the Hoopoo in its place. Is he g”Ione out?

21. “I shall severely punish him or kill him unless he puts forth a reasonable excuse for his action (in absence).”

22. Not much time had passed when he returned, and said, “I have found out one thing of which your Majesty is unaware. I have brought new of the city Sheba with certainty.

23. “I found Queen Bilqis ruling, who has been gifted with everything and has a glorious throne.

24. “And I found her and her tribe worshipping the sun leaving God, and the devil had eulogized her action, in her eyes, and misled them whence they cannot get out.”

25. Why do they not worship God? Who exposes the secretes of the heavens and earth and knows what we hide and expose.

26. God is He besides Whom there is no other Sovereign of the most exalted throne.

27. Solomon said, “I shall just test you, whether you are true or false.

28. “Take this note, throw it into her apartment and keep off awaiting her reply.”

29. Well, the hoopoo transmitted the message as commanded. When the queen said (addressing her courtiers), “I have been in receipt of an honourable note

30. “from King Solomon which begins in the name of God the Merciful and the Compassionate.

31. “Do not pride at me and supplicate me.”

Moral

It may be noted, Jewish prophets were gifted with something of everything, whereas Prophet Muhammad and the Ahl al-Bayt were gifted with all that was needed. Compare Ali's interpreting the sounding of an Abbey's horn.

Interpretation of an Abbey's Horn

1. Sublime is God, Truth is He. Verily the Lord is Self-sufficient, Eternal, Forbearing, and Compassionate to us. Had it not been for his forbearance, we would have been doomed.

2. Verily shall we be raised on Reckoning Day and a questioner shall demand accounting on us. Oh Lord, do not destroy us, rectify our faults, take us into Your service and purify us. Your forbearance led us to Your disobedience. Hence, forgive us.

3. Verily the world has deceived us and engaged us in worldly avocations and made us forgetful and deceived us.

4. Oh worldly people, do not amass (do not amass wealth). Oh worldly people, be patient in worldly affairs, walk carefully. Go on weighing, i.e. account from self as you proceed.

5. The world shall annihilate its generation. Not a day passes, but someone amongst us passes off the world.

6. Hurry up to account before death. Had we not been ignorant, we would have considered the world a jail. Do virtues and avoid ill, do virtue, bear grief.

7. What is the world? What is it? How long it is? Give it up. Therein lays your welfare. Hope in God.

Verses 32 – 44

32. Queen of Sheba said, “Oh my courtiers, advise me on this matter of mine and I am not going to decide until you advise me.”

33. They said, “We are strong in might and money and valiant, too, and are awaiting your commands to comply with and shall discharge our duties as per your wish.”

34. She said, “Verily when kings enter towns they lay them waste, disregarding the nobles thereof and this is what they (generally) do.

35. “Of course, I am sending him a gift and awaiting the reply through messengers.”

36. When they came to Solomon he said, “Are you tempting with an offer of money? What God has granted me is much better than what you have. You had better be pleased with your presents.

37. Go back to her and tell them (the queen and her courtiers) if you do not submit (to me) I shall march against you in forces, and drive you out from your estate in a disgraceful condition.”

38. And then he addressed his nobles, “Who amongst you is ready to bring her throne before she come here under submission?

39. One of the wild giants said, “I am going to bring it to you before you get up from your throne and dI am strong enough to bring it here, being confident (and capable of action).”

40. And He who had a part of Divine knowledge⁵ said, “I shall bring it within a twinkling of eye.” (When Solomon opened his eyes) he saw the throne before him. He said, “This is my God’s mercy. He tests me whether I thank Him or I am ungrateful to him. He who thanks gets benefits thereof to himself and he who is ungrateful very my Providence is independent of him.”

41. Solomon said, “Change the features of the throne and let us see if she recognizes it or remains with those who receives no guidance.”

42. When she came she was asked, “Is this your throne?” She said, “Certainly it is very much like it, and we came to know of it before, and we now submit (unto you).”

43. And the devil⁶ had stopped her worship of God. Verily she was formerly one of the infidels.

44. She was asked to enter the palace when she saw, she thought was water, was standing still (therein) raised her gown (to save it from getting wet with water). Then he said, “It is a palace of mirror” (having mirrors under flooring) upon which she said, “Oh my God, I have proved myself disobedient, I now supplicate You, the Providence of the world along with Solomon.

Moral

How can miracles manifested by Ali be deemed sorceress on the face of the facts of this paragraph.

Verses 45 – 59

45. Verily We sent to the tribe of Thamud, his brother, Salih, to advise to worship God, when immediately they split up into groups⁷.

46. Then Salih said, “Oh my tribe, why do you hurry up with sins before virtue? And why do you not pray forgiveness from God so you may be mercified.

47. They said, “Curse be on you and on those with you.” Salih retorted, “Curse is going to come from God. Rather, you are a tribe under test.”

48. And there, in the city, were nine people sowing seeds of litigation without any idea of effecting reconciliation.

49. They said, “By God, we shall kill Salih and his family by night and shall deny the charge by saying we were not present during their destruction and we are true in our statement.”

50. They plotted and We averted their plotting.

51. See what has been the fate of the plotters. We destroyed them wholesale (with a shriek of Gabriel).

52. And these are the houses, deserted, due to their tyranny. In this there is a sign (of safety from God) for the sect which understands.⁸

53. We saved those who were faithful and pious.

54. And recall when Lot said, “Oh my tribe, you practice vice knowingly.

55. “What! Are you passionately approaching men, leaving women aside?

Rather, you are a sinful tribe.”

56. They had no reply except saying, “We shall expel Lot and his family from the town, they are boasting of piety.”

57. So We saved his family, except the old woman who was fated to lag.

58. And We poured down stones and it was a horrible downpour for those who were warned.

59. Say, “Thank God and be peace on His selected devotees (Prophets).” Is not God better than those whom they associate with?

Moral

Clear.

Verses 60 – 66

60. Who created the Heavens and Earth? Who sends you rain from clouds with which We grow finely developed gardens and you had no means to grow these trees of gardens? Is anybody with participating in this? Rather, this is a people turning away from Him.

61. Who is it to fix your sojourn on earth and make valleys to run into rivers and make hills and flow gulfs separating the two seas? Is anybody participating God in this? Rather, most do not know.

62. Who accepts the prayers of the agonized and wipes of adversities and makes you successor on Earth? Is anybody to associate with God? Few take advice.

63. Who guides you in darkness and on land and sea? And who sends refreshing winds as a precursor of His mercy? Is anybody associating with Him? Might is He, with Whom they participate.

64. Who started creation and who shall revert it? And who feeds you from the Heavens and the Earth? Is any associating with God? Say, Put forth your evidence if you are true.”

65. Say, “None knows the secrets of the Heavens and Earth except God.” They do not know when they shall be raised alive.

66. Rather, their knowledge of eternity is limited, nay, they are in doubt of it. rather, they are blinded about it.

Moral

God in proof of His Being personal indispensable cause puts forward the following proofs:

1. Cosmological – He having created (under knowledge and Might, nothing having emanated from Him and thus disproving doctrine of Pantheism). The Heavens and Earth were energized solely by Him, without assistance of a partner or a son, thus dispensing with claims of infidels, Christians, Jews, who maintain the angels to be daughters of God, Jesus and Ezra to be sons of God to look after the Administration of the world. His object of creation is to afford a definite time within which to attain Divine proximity, through instruments of Divine Lights with revelation, being made capable beforehand, He being inaccessible by virtue of His being unlike creation.
2. In proof of His further existence, He directs our attention to where human hearts seek relief in distress, when material means, placed at their disposal, fail to function.
3. He then points out revealed sources created for human guidance ad be no more agnostic.
4. He then lays down teleological objects of creation and reversion, which is to secure the final destination of paradise or perdition, depending upon belief or unbelief of Him and action through Divine Lights or otherwise. Eternal hell is for him who denies foundations of faith, which are five already enunciated.
5. When means provided by the Indispensable Cause to proximate Him are forsaken, what right has humans, how much able, intellectual wise and philosophical be he to claim Divine proximity? How can he claim even intelligence, wisdom, etc. when these are Divine gifts and have been misused, by being ungrateful to God, for acknowledging His Sovereignty and commands? Divination by means of evil spirits as occultism is illegal and depracated, except genuine cases duly tested religiously.

Verses 67 – 82

67. And infidels said, “What, after we have been turned into dust and so our forefathers, are going to be raised alive?

68. “Verily so we have been warned and so our forefathers before this.” These are the stories of old.

69. Say, “Move on Earth and see what has been the fat of culprits.”

70. Do not be sorry and constrained at their (argumentative) intrigue.

71. They ask you when is this day going to be if you are true?

72. Say, “Shortly, some of it may follow of which you are hurrying up.”

73. And verily your Providence is Gracious to His creatures although most are ungrateful.

74. And verily your Providence knows what is secret in their hearts and what they expose.

75. And nothing of the secret of the heavens and earth is but recorded in the manifest plate.

76. Verily this Text describes to Jews on what most of which they differ.

77. And verily this is a guidance and mercy to the faithful.

78. And verily your Providence shall judge on His authority between them and He is Almighty and knowing.

79. So you trust in God, you are clearly upon Truth.

80. And verily you cannot make the dead hear nor the deaf, even when they are shouted out when they have turned their backs (to you).

81. And you are not to guide the blind from misguidance, you can only make him hear who believes in Our Couplets and follows them.

82. And when the time for vengeance (Resurrection) shall approach, We shall bring out from them a pedestrian who shall talk to them and, in fact, the people were not certain about it.

Religious Moral

After describing the general characteristics of infidels in their disbelief of Dooms Day and who were ridiculing it as stories of old, of which they and their forefathers were threatened, they demanded actual date of it, which is only known to God Who has held it in secrecy. None should insist on it.

Signs of Resurrection

During Resurrection, when time for avenging the Prophet's enemies, will come during the emergence of the 12th Light, there shall appear Dajjal, a Jew by caste and sorcerer by profession, born in the afternoon of Wednesday, in the time of the Prophet, six miles away from Medina, and one eyed and who started talking, having on his forehead, inscribed infidelity. The Prophet demanded evidence of his prophecy, upon which he demand of the Prop[he his Divine nomination. The Prophet cursed him. He has been spared until Resurrection and will be slain by Jesus. Ali will appear on Mount Safa' with Moses' rod, and Solomon's ring to distinguish infidels from faithful. This will be when the sun will rise from the west and the door of penance shall be closed.

Verses 83 – 93

83. The day We shall raise alive a group from every generation who had falsified Our signs⁹and will be made to stand.¹⁰

84. Until all assemble, when God will address, “You falsified My Messengers, having no knowledge thereof or were you doing anything else?”

85. And shall become deserving of punishment for disobedience when they will not say anything.

86. Do they not see We have made nights for rest and days for earning livelihood. Verily there is a sign for a faithful sect.

87. The day when the siren will sound everything in heaven and earth will be in swoon, except whom God wishes,¹¹ and they will come disgraced before Him.

88. And you will see mountains and think they are steady, although they will be moving like clouds. This is Divine Wisdom Who has created everything on a hard pan. Verily He is acquainted with your deeds.

89. He who comes with a virtue¹² shall have a better reward and will be saved from the swoon of the day.

90. And he who shall come with enmity (of the Ahl al-Bayt) shall be hurled into hell, being addressed, “This is nothing but the result of your deeds.”

91. It is nothing but I am ordained, I should worship the Lord of this House, which is sanctified and for Whom is everything and I am commanded to supplicate Him.

92. I am reading out this Text to you. He who is guided has it to his credit, and he who is misguided, be informed I am a warner.

93. And say, “Praise be to God, shortly shall He show you His signs, when you will recognize them and your Providence is not negligent of your deeds.”

Moral

In this allusion is made to Resurrection and Judgment Day in brief, laying stress on attachment to the Ahl al-Bayt. Compare Jesus in St. John 7:63, 9:5, 12:26, 14:15, and 6:47 – 48.

1.I am the Inviter and Hearer.

2.As it was a cold night.

3.Because they are immaculate, they commit no sin, and have no reason to be afraid and listen carefully during revelation.

4.Of Moses being a Divine Messenger.

5.Asaf Barquia, Prime Minister.

6.through whose initiation she was worshipping the sun, leaving God.

7.factions, one admitting Salih's authenticity and the other disputing it.

8.the Divine Hand is behind their back.

9.i.e. Divine Lights.

10.I.e. a group of faithful and a group of enemies to the Ahl al-Bait to avenge and this is Resurrection.

11.Those attached to the Ahl al-Bayt.

12.Bearing affection to the Ahl al-Bayt, i.e. having followed Divine Lights

Surah Al-Qasas, Chapter 28

In the Name of God the Compassionate, the Merciful

Verses 1 – 13

1. *Ta, Seen, Meem.*¹

2. These are the couplets of the clear Book

3. of which We are reading out to you, a true history of Moses and Pharaoh for a sect which has faith in them (for consolation).

4. Verily Pharaoh was an over-powering ruler on Earth, and had mad section of his subjects and weakened one by slaying their sons and leaving alive their daughters. Verily he was among the seditious.

5. And We intend to oblige the weak on Earth and make them leaders (of religion) and inheritors on Earth.²

6. And by reinforcing their might on Earth, thus indicating Pharaoh, Haman, and his forces³ and of which they were afraid.

7. And We revealed unto the mother of Moses to nurse the child and during danger let it into the river with fear of his future, and grief (due to separation).

8. And the family of Pharaoh, Haman, and his forces were in the wrong.

9. And Pharaoh's wife remarked, "The child might be a source of pleasure to her and him and he should not be killed. Shortly we may benefit by him, by adopting him as our son." And they were unaware (of Pharaoh's destruction at his hands).

10. And Moses' mother was troubled in her mind (under the devil's misgivings) and was about to reveal the secret had We not strengthened her heart so as to make her steadfast in her faith.

11. She said to his sister to follow it (the box) and watch sideways, which was not brought to the public notice.

12. And We had made unlawful the nursing of Moses by the infidels before so his sister said (when the child would not suck any wet nurses), "Shall I point out a house to nurse the child for you and who will also a caretaker of it?"

13. Thus, We reverted the child to his mother so as to cool her eyes and remove her grief and be certain God's promise is true, though most do not believe it.

Moral

God has allegorically represented enemies of the Ahl al-Bayt in Pharaoh, Haman, and presaged their punishment during resurrection. Mighty Divine Design is to be appreciated in how Moses is being brought up at Pharaoh's.

Verses 14 – 21

14. When Moses attained maturity⁴ and became quite fit (to receive prophetship) he was endowed on Law and Divine knowledge and thus We reward the obliging.

15. And he entered Egypt when people were unaware (of him) and he found two fighting – one his follower and the other adversary. His follower complained to Moses against his adversary, upon whom Moses gave a blow, resulting in his death and remarked, “This quarrel is the result of following the devil. Verily he is an open enemy.”

16. And them Moses prayed to God, “I brought myself to an undesirable place, pray forgive me” and God forgave him. Verily He is Forgiving and Merciful.

17. And Moses said, “Oh my Providence for the bounty and knowledge in which You have endowed on me. I shall never let me side with the culprit.

18. When the next day broke he was walking fearfully in hope, when the same follower asked for help upon which Moses said “You are openly a mischievous chap.”

19. So when he found Moses was about to beat him, he told Moses, “Do you want to kill me as you killed a man yesterday? Do you mean to act like a tyrant and have no intention to reconcile?”⁵

20. And thus came a man running from a distant end of the street and said, “Oh Moses, the officers have decided to kill you. Get away from here and I am your well-wisher.”

21. And Moses ran and their praying to God to save him from the tyrants.

Moral

From this it appears the importance of Taqiyya which goes to safeguard the life of Immaculates who were entrapped in saving sinful followers against the dead enemies of God. A man known as “Momin-eAle Pheraon” 600 years old acting on this principle of Taqiyya save Moses’ life by timely information.

Verses 22 – 28

22. So when Moses directed himself to Midian, he said to himself, “My God shall lead me to the right path.”

23. When he arrived at the village well, he found a group of people feeding their animals with water and found two girls standing aloof holding up their sheep, preventing themselves from mixing up with the crowd. So he addressed them, “What about you?” They said, “We cannot feed out sheep until the crowd disperses and our father is aged.”

24. So he fed their sheep with water and took himself aside under the shade of a tree, praying to God, “Whatever bounty You have reserved for me I beg of Your gift.”

25. When one of those two girls approached him bashfully saying, “My father wants to reward you for your labour of feeding our animals with water.” So when he came to Shu‘ayb, he related his past history. When he (Shu‘ayb) said, “Be not afraid anymore, you are safe against tyrannical hands.”

26. When one of them (the two daughters) said, “Oh Father, engage him on a stipend for verily he is strong and faithful thus deserving of employment.

27. Shu‘ayb said, “I intend to marry one of my daughters to you, on condition of your serving me eight years, and if you complete ten, all the better, although I do not force you.” (Moses said), “God willing, you will find me among the virtuous (fulfilling the contract).”

28. Then he said, “This is a closed contract between us two, on any period I fulfil there will be no pressure on me and God is a witness to our (verbal) contract.

Moral

Divine design needs appreciation on how Moses is born, cherished, and married and receives prophetship. The entire life history of Moses is chivalrous. His behaviour is to be kept in the mind of men for trial of like nature, with followers of Muhammad in Islam. Object of make history previous prophets and their followers is confirming human character being like-minded.

Verses 29 – 42

29. When Moses completed his stipulated period, he started with his wife (Sufera) when he saw fire from Mount Sinai. He told his wife to halt there, Verily I have seen fire whence I can bring news or burning charcoal with which you can warm yourself (as it is extremely cold tonight).”

30. And when he reached the place he was shouted out from the right side of the valley of the sacred Mount Sinai from a burning bush, “Oh Moses, I am God the providence of the worlds.

31. “And you had better cast down your rod.” When he saw it moving like a living serpent, he turned his back and took to heels without looking behind. When he was shouted again by Divine call, “Oh Moses, come, do not be afraid. You are among the guarded (from the serpent and else).”

32. “Take out your hand from pocket, shining, without any disease, and shrug your shoulders to remove your fright, and these two are miracles from your Providence, for Pharaoh and his nobles. Verily they are a disobedient tribe.”

33. Moses said, “Oh my Providence, I have killed a man and I fear I shall be killed (in turn).

34. “And my brother Aaron is more fluent than I, send him with me to assist to testify me as I fear I shall be falsified otherwise.”

35. God said, “Shortly shall I strengthen your shoulder with your brother, granting you a miracle on account of which they will not approach you two and your followers, (too), shall succeed with your miracles.”

36. When Moses came to them with Our open miracles, they said, “This is nothing but magic (libelling God), and we have never heard about it from our preceding forefathers.”

37. Moses said, “My God knows I have come with guidance from Him and he know who is fated for (Paradise in) eternity, and the disobedient will not be spared.”

38. Pharaoh said, “Oh my nobles, I have not known any other God except myself. So you kindle a fire, oh you Haman, to bake bricks and make a (lofty tower) to ascend to meet Moses’ God. Verily I believe him to be of the liars.”

39. Thus he and they (his forces) prided without rhyme and reason and thought they would not revert to Us.

40. So We seized him and his forces and drowned them in the sea. See what has been the fate of the disobedient.

41. And We have made them leaders inviting to Hell, and on Reckoning Day, they will not be helped.

42. And We have deprecated curse on them in this world and on the Day of Judgment shall they be among the (worst sufferers).

Religious Moral

(34) Similarly Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him and his progeny) prayed to God to grant him Ali's assistance in propagating Islam (Vide Paragraph 2 Ta Ha). Ali was to Muhammad what Aaron to Moses. This is the advantage of making history in the Qur'an by the Sublime Almighty.

(41) Pharaoh claimed to be God, falsified Moses as a magician and is condemned to hell. Similarly, those who assumed Khailafat, falsified Prophet Muhammad in his nomination of Ali as a Divine Light under Divine command and his immaculate family Hassan and Hussain, who were declared to be Lords of Paradise, were over-looked by the tyrants of their age shall be treated.

Verses 43 – 50

43. Verily We gave Moses a Text, after having destroyed preceding generation (clearly) testifying to man as guidance and mercy so they may take an advice.

44. And you (oh Prophet) were not to the West (or near Mount Sinai) when We decided Moses' affairs not did you witness it.

45. But We created generations and a long period intervened between them, and you were not stopping with men of Midian when you could read out to them Our Text but We were to send in you a messenger.

46. And you were not on Mount Sinai when We shouted out to Moses (knowledge thereof is) a mercy from your Providence, to war the generation to whom they (warners) had not come so far, so they may take advice.

47. Lest, when calamity befall them on account of their own misdeeds, they may say, “Oh Providence, why didst You not sent us Prophets, we would have followed them and become faithful.”

48. And when the truth (in person of the Prophet) came to them from us, they said, “Why are you not given miracles, like those of Moses?” Did they not refuse the Text given to Moses before you? They said, “These two are open magicians and refused to accept each of the entirely (as Divine Messengers).

49. Say, “Bring a Book from God better in guidance than (Torah and Qur'an, they have received) nso I shall follow it if you are true.”

50. And if they do not answer you then know they are passionate (in their actions) and who can be more misguided than one who follows one's passion without guidance from God? And verily God does not guide a disobedient community.

Moral

Self-evident.

Verses 51 – 60

51. And certainly We have made the word to reach them so that they may be mindful.⁶

52. And certainly We have made the word to reach them so that they may be mindful.⁷

53. And when (Our) Couplets are being read out to them, they say, “We have embraced faith in the Text (Qur'an).” It is a genuine revelation from our Providence, and verily we are supplicant to (the text).

54. Those are the people who shall be doubly rewarded for their patience in having substituted the ills (done to them) by virtues and in having spent out of what We have provided, in the name of God.

55. When they hear non-sense⁸they turn away their faces, saying “To us is the reward of our actions and likewise to you for your acts, peace be upon you, we are not fond of ignorant society.”

56. Verily you cannot guide whom you like. Rather, God guides whom He likes, and He is acquainted with those capable of being guided.

57. And they say, “If we follow you we shall be swept away from Earth.”
What! Have We not made a holy sanctuary, safe against invasions of infidels?
Providing it with provisions from Earth? But most do not know it.

58. And how many have We destroyed of the cities which were (vainly) prosperous? these houses have not since flourished except a few, and We are the final inheritors of all.

59. And your Providence is not going to destroy until He raises a Prophet amongst them, who reads out to them Our (Divine) Commandments, and We shall never destroy any city except when the residents thereof become disobedient.

60. And whatever We have given you is the transitory property of this world and which is its decoration (liable to decay) and what is with God is far better and permanent. You cannot understand so much?

Moral

The world cannot go on without Divine Light, and without knowing the Divine Light no human action will be appreciated by God. Divine Lights should be immaculate and Divine nominated are preliminary conditions to guidance. It is possible he may, under Divine Commands, shut himself out from the public to meet Divine Wisdom. For that simple reason his existence cannot be ignored. In his absence he makes sufficient arrangements to keep guidance going on until such a time God commands His emergence, to restore peace he has to remain concealed, as in the present case of the 12th Divine Light.

For fear of losing worldly ambitious grades, people do not subject themselves to religious discipline and this is short-sightedness.

Couplet 56 refers to Ali Talib (Ali's father) who had masked his faith and helped the Prophet in his mission. His case is alike “Seven Sleepers of the Cave,” secretly co-operating when Mecca was entirely under pagan worship.

The succeeding Couplet gives the trend of the general public then.

Verses 61 – 75

61. What! Is he whom We have promised (Eternal Bliss) and it is good and sure to be fulfilled is alike one whom We have granted of worldly property? And for which he will be presented before God to render account on the day of Judgment.

62. When they will be called upon (at the instance of God) to produce their associates (with Me).

63. And they on whom Our punishment will be justified will cry out, “Oh our Providence, these are the people whom we misguided as we ourselves were misguided.” The misguided leaders will say, “We seek separation from them and come to You.” They were not really worshipping Us but were slaves to their passion in gaining this world.

64. And they will be asked to call out their associates, upon which they will call them, and they will not reply to them, and when they shall see the punishment they will wish they had been rightly guided.

65. And, on that day,⁹ regarding the Prophet, they will be asked how they replied to his invitation (to God).

66. And on that day they will not be able to reply and will not be able to question one another.

67. But he, of course, who did penance, embraced faith, had acted virtuously, it is likely (certainly being God's promise) he will attain salvation.

68. And your Providence creates what He likes and chooses a Prophet whom He likes. Others have no hand in it. Pure is He from what they associate others with Him.

69. And your Providence knows what you hide in your heart and expose

70. and it is He, God and there is none except Him. And for Him alone is praise both in this world and eternity. His will be done; to Him shall you all revert.

71. Say, “Will you note if He continues the night until the Day of Judgment. Is there any of you who can bring day (light) instead. Do you not listen (carefully).”

72. Say, “Do you note if God continues the day, until the Day of Judgment, which god except Him can bring night for you to rest. Do you not understand it?”

73. And out of His grace, He made (alternately) night and day, so you may take rest (during the night) and work for living (during the day), out of His grace and be grateful to Him.

74. And on the Day of Judgment, they will be called upon to produce their associates of whose intercession they were sure on their behalf.

75. And We shall produce for every generation a witness in Divine Light of his age and shall ask them to produce proofs of their following their own religion (against his invitation) and when they will realize the truth is with God and what false charges they were adducing shall all disappear.

Moral

Except (true) Islam, all other religions will suffer.

Verses 76 – 82

76. Verily Karun was a member of Moses' community, then he transgressed and We had given him so much wealth that the keys of his treasures were difficult to be carried by a group of strong men. When his sect told him not to strut (in vain glory) as God does not like the vain.

77. Obey and seek eternity with what God has endowed on you and do not forget your share (of health, wealth, time, energy, all being Divine Deposit to be voted to God) in the world, and oblige others as God has obliged you and do not fan sedition (on earth). Verily God does not like the seditious.

78. He said, “What is granted to me is due to my own knowledge.” What he did not know, verily God destroyed many a generation before him, who was stronger than him, both in might and main? And the culprits will not be questioned about their sins (they will be hurled right into hell).

79. And so he started coming out in public, amongst his sect, with (affected) pomp and dignity.

80. And those (of Moses’ adherents) who were given (Divine) knowledge said, “You are damned.” Those who embraced faith and acted virtuously have a much greater Divine reward and this fact is not appreciated except by the (few) patient (faithful).

81. Then We buried Karoon and his wealth and his treasures into the earth and he had none of his group to help him against God nor could he save himself.

82. And those who had wished themselves to be alike (Karoon) said, “It is only God Who expands provision on His creatures as He likes and contracts on whom He chooses. Had not God obliged us (by keeping our provisions contacted) we would have been likewise buried.” Alas! Only the infidels cannot find shelter.

Moral

This is a very clear proof of God’s condemning vanity caused by wealth, unless the wealthy reserve to self only so much is quite essential for self, and spend so much as is quite essential for self, and spend the rest in the name of God on mutual relation. There is no hope for salvation although few appreciate. What a bar these riches, keeping them away from Divine Remembrance, Divine Knowledge and turning them to be hypocrites – granting they are in constant touch with the Learned. They cannot escape selfconceitedness due to inescapable vanity. This is Divine Philosophy in maintain the faithful in poor condition, in this world, for which they should be grateful to Him.

They should bear in view the dignity of “Labour” as Divine Lights have themselves manifested and shed prejudice against it, especially amongst educated classes, giving essential consideration to their position. To develop spiritual, intellectual and material phase of life, remembering labour is not in itself an end but a means to achieve eternity, which is lasting wealth, aided by abstinence, by sacrificing present comforts for future State. The dignity of labour in spiritual phase of life is on (1) prayers, (2) fast, (3) pilgrimage, etc. and is so much estimated, that “if prayers are admitted” the rest of the virtues shall be considered, else they will be rejected. Again, fast is compensated by God and none else can do it. If pilgrimage avoided, with a view, not to sacrificing comforts of life, or incurring inconvenience of journey, no matter if one offers instead a mountain full of gold, it will not be accepted.

Thus, self-sacrifice and abstinence of the present pleasures, with a view to be wealthy in the future State are sure means of salvation against eternal punishment (vide Surah 61, Couplets 10 – 11) (The ranks) having faith in God and Divine Lights. To develop this dignity of labour, keep in touch with traditions, promising wealth in future State for performance of prayers, observance of fast, pilgrimage (obligatory and auxiliary) especially during the months of Rajab, Sha‘ban, and the Holy month of Ramadhan – reading of the Qur’ān (described in Appendix B).

Verses 83 – 88

83. House of Eternity, we have reserved for those who do not want to be (vainly) proud and seditious on Earth. Rather, Eternity is for the pious.

84. Whoever brings good, he shall have better than it, and whoever brings evil, those who do evil shall not be rewarded (for) aught except what they did.¹⁰

85. Verily He who has revealed unto you the Text (for transmission) shall raise you during¹¹ in due dispense of justice. Say, “My Providence knows who is on guidance and who is suffering under open misguidance.”

86. You did not expect revelation of the Book, but it was a mercy from your Providence, so side not with infidels.

87. Lest they may turn you away from Divine Commands, after revelation having come to you,¹² and be not among the associators.

88. And do not associate any with God. There is no other god but He. Everything is destructible, except His Kingdom¹³ for Him is the final judgment to Whom shall you revert.¹⁴

Moral

It is distinctly laid down, “Eternity is Home for the righteous” and their characteristics have been variously pointed out from time to time by God, viz. (1) implicit faith in God, (2) in Divine Light, (3) bearing intense love to the Prophet’s Immaculate Family, (4) naturally this means hatred to the enemies of God, the Prophet and his Immaculate Family, (5) belief in future life, (6) preparation for it, (7) under self-sacrifice of life, property, and honour, (8) realization of Divine Justice being fulfilled, (9) this brings about penance for evil deeds, (10) ever remembrance of Divine gifts causes thanksgiving.

- 1.Purity of souls of Divine Lovers, divine secrecy on sinners and salvation of the obedient, divine bounty on fulfillment of human wants.
 - 2.This is a prediction for resurrection of Divine Lights.
 - 3.their actual estimation in Our eyes.
 - 4.33 years of age.
 - 5.The secret of Moses' action was thus divulged.
 - 6.And We have maintained a continuous succession of Divine Lights, as guides, to take advice for their guidance from them until the 12th Divine Light.
 - 7.Those whom (i.e. Jewish and Christian scribes) We have given (the knowledge of) the Text believe in it (the Qur'an) (e.g. Abyssinian Christian King), primarily Divine Light.
 - 8.e.g. musical entertainment,
 - 9.In the grave regarding Divine Lights, the dead being enlivened will be asked by angels how they responded to his call. The Faithful, recognizing will answer will and he blessed and infidels will fail and be over-powered by a misguiding devil. Besides serpents and scorpions, shall sting them there. Thus, there is individual responsibility on every soul and no collective responsibility will serve any purpose.
 - 10.He who comes bearing love for the Prophet's Ahl al-Bayt (family – immaculate), for him is a better reward and he who comes otherwise (bearing a grudge to Divine Light Immaculate) shall be paid back in his coin.
 - 11.Rajat, i.e. Resurrection to avenge.
 - 12.This refers to the faithful and not the Prophet.
 - 13.The source which brought us to recognize Him.

14. This source is “Islam,” declared by the “Divine Lights” who have been “Divine Taught,” the rest being Paganism.

Surah Al-‘Ankabut, Chapter 29

In the Name of God the Compassionate, the Merciful

Verses 1 – 13

1. Alif Lam Meem.

2. Do the people thing they would scot-free on simply stating they have embraced faith without being put to trial.¹

3. Verily have We tested men before them, and shall God test them too as to who is true and who is false in his claim.

4. Do they, who continuously transgress think they shall supersede Us²? Evil is their sense leading to this issue.

5. He who is sure to meet God, for verily the Day of Reckoning is going to come (shall prepare for it), and He is Hearing and Knowing.

6. He who strives under self-denial does it to his credit and God is independent of all (being Self- sufficient.

7. Those who have embraced faith and acted righteously shall see We reduce his sins³ and reward him for his virtuous deeds.

8. And We commanded humans to oblige their parents, and if they (parents) force you to associate any with Me without having knowledge, do not obey them as you shall revert to Me when I shall advise you of your deeds.

9. And to them who behaved and acted righteously, certainly shall We admit among the righteous.

10. And amongst them are those who say they have believed in God and when they are tried on behalf of God they complain, as though they have received a punishment from God, and when any Divine help comes they say they are with you. Does not God know what is secret in the hearts of the people of the world.

11. Verily shall God know who are faithful, and who are hypocrites.

12. And the infidels told the faithful to follow them, they would bear their sins, but they are not going to bear anymore. They are liars.⁴

13. They would rather carry their own sins and sins of the misguiding others and shall be questioned on the Day of Judgment. How they were falsifying.

Moral

On revelation of this the Prophet said, “My followers shall certainly be tried after me, to distinguish the faithful from otherwise, and as revelation will cease, sword will remain behind until Judgment Day. This prophecy, we have been witnessing until today, true adherents of Divine Lights, owing to their disagreement with their enemies, have been continuously in communal affray (compare the tragedy of Karbala).

Those who do not interest themselves in either party, to preserve their worldly status, at the cost of religion shall suffer the most because when you do not appear for examination you have no qualifications for admission to Paradise. These are hypocrites, viz. Muslims in name.

Verses 14 – 22

14. Verily We sent Noah to his community with whom he stayed for 950 years, and finally deluge overtook them for their disobedience.

15. And We saved Noah with his companions in the Ark, making in them an example for the world.

16. Recall when Abraham told his tribe to worship God and fear Him alone, as it is good for them if they understand.

17. Verily you are not doing anything but worshipping idols, barring God, and fabricating falsehood yourself, verily those whom you worship, besides God, have no power to provide you, therefore, seek provision from God, worship Him and be grateful unto Him as you have to revert unto Him.

18. And if they have falsified you (oh Prophet) prior to you previous generations have falsified their (respective) Prophets. (Then know) for the Prophet is nothing but to transmit an open message.

19. Have they not noticed how God does start creation?⁵ Verily it is easy for God to do so.

20. Tell them to move about and contemplate how variably God started human creation in (form, creed, and colour) then shall God similarly bring it back to life after death. Verily God is Omnipotent.

21. He punishes whom He likes, and merciful to whom He chooses, and to Him shall you revert.

22. Neither any of Earth or any of Heaven shall reduce God, and he shall not find, barring God, any to sympathize with or assist him.

Moral

God in proof of His raising the dead quotes enlivening of creation after its extinction also, he cites various coloured creation on the surface of the earth without any model, He started, so shall He similarly raise them alive to account for their deeds.

Verses 23 – 30

23. Those who denied God's commands and deny facing Him (on the Day of Judgment) shall be despondent of His mercy and for them is intense punishment.

24. (Abraham's) tribe had no other answer for him except to slay or burn him, so God saved him from the fire. Verily, in this there are signs for the faithful.

25. He (Abraham) said, "It is nothing but you have taken a fancy to idol worship (to follow the passionate leaders) so as to serve your mutual interest in courting worldly pleasures, when on the Day of Judgment they will deny fealty to one another and curse one another." Your destination is hell with none to help you.

26. Of course, Lot believed in him (Abraham) and Abraham said, "I am going to flee to my Providence,⁶ Who is Mighty and Wise.

27. And We endowed upon Isaac and Jacob, entrusting the prophetship in his family and endowing Text and rewarding him in the world for verily shall he be among the righteous in eternity.

28. And call to mind when Lot told his tribe, "You are committing vice of a nature not preceded by any in the world.

29. "What! Are you going to men, barring women, stopping wayfarers (with evil intentions) and practicing all evil in your company?" He had no reply from his tribe except saying, "Call on Divine wrath if you are true."

30. When prayed, “Oh my Providence, help me against my seditious tribe.”

Moral

Falsifying a prophet brings about Divine Wrath.

Verses 31 – 44

31. When our messengers⁷ came to Abraham with tidings, they said, “We are going to destroy the people of this village as they are disobedient.”

32. Abraham said, “There is Lot amongst them.” They said, “We know all who are there. We are going to save him and his family except his wife who is going to be among those who lag.”

33. When Our messengers came to Lot, he was constrained and felt himself helpless to shaven them. They said, “Do not fear and be not sorry. We are going to save you and your children, except your wife, who is going to be among those who lag.”

34. Verily we are going to case from heaven, on this village, Divine wrath for their disobedience.

35. We, of course, left a clear sign (in them) for the sensible people.

36. We sent to the people of Midian, their brother Shu‘ayb, who said, “Oh my sect, worship God, and fear the Day of Judgment (interpolating).

37. And do not move about (earth quaked) as a shriek in Divine wrath over-took them and they remained dead where they were.

38. And the tribes of ‘Ad and Thamud were destroyed. We pointed out to you their homes, and the devil had barred them from the right path by eulogizing their acts in their eyes, although they were conscious of their evil deeds.

39. And so the Karoon and Pharaoh and Haman, verily came to them Moses with miracles. They were arrogant on Earth and they could not reduce Us.

40. We seized them all, some by pelting stones on them, others under quake shriek, and burying some underneath, drowning others into the sea and We have ot been tyrant but they have tyrannizing themselves.

41. Their worshipping besides God was like seeking refuge in a spider’s web (which spins one) and the spider’s web verily is the weakest thing (in the world). Would they had known it.

42. Verily God knows whom they worship besides Him. He is Mighty and Wise.

43. And these instances which We put for man, but none except the learned know.

44. God created Heaven and Earth with a true motive. Verily in this there are signs for the faithful.

Moral

1. The last paragraph distinctly points out love for worldly pleasures, in any form is destructive, ultimately to individual interest, whether the scientist claims comfort to life in peace, carrying out his researches, or a politician desires welfare state with folk dances alluring the public to propagating peace through length and breadth of the earth or an industrialist claims property by universal employment, thus eulogizing his mentally misguided own actions, under the devil's deception, renders himself culpable before Divinity on Reckoning Day, for not having submitted to His religious discipline indicated and followed by Divine Lights.
2. Co-ordinate co-operation is nothing but seeking a refuge in a spider's web of socialist democracy, against theocracy. They are unaware of life beyond death, where collective security disappears against individual responsibility to Divinity on reversion. Nor any attempt at crushing by hydrogen bombs to each other, such as democracy versus communism, is anything but the devil's intrigue, against man and God.

How can such acts be conceived under Divine approval when the very Creator, Who is indispensable to man, is discarded?

When God, to establish His theocracy, has enforced on man to present himself five times a day, praying forgiveness for his sins and praying for provision for self, through His Divine Light. Any constitution, irrespective of these two is unacceptable under any circumstances, to be a true Muslim, whose faith in the Glorious Qur'an assures him, Islam revealed unto universal Prophet prevails over all religions to displeasure of associators who by tampering with previous (their won) revelations have placed themselves so awkwardly.

Even present peace movements, by the Republic or the Socialist or in between are not going to relive any of his individual responsibility to God. He distinctly maintains everything in Heaven and Earth and in between is His. So is administration thereof. He has no partner to share His administration, except His legal Divine Lights, who simply comply with His Commands and do nothing of their own free will.

Verses 45 – 51

45. Read out (to them) what We revealed to you of the text and be steady at prayers. Verily prayers, if discharged (with conditions) prevent moral sins, e.g. fornication and religious vices such as association and sins of like nature, whereas Divine remembrance is the greatest (desideration), and God knows what you do.⁸

46. Do not litigate with men or revealed religions, except most politely but forsake those who are tyrants among them and are not amenable to polite reasoning, and tell them, we have believed in what is revealed to us and to what is revealed to you (the Bible, etc.) and your God is One, and we supplicate to Him.

47. And thus We revealed to you the Text. Those who are given the knowledge thereof, believe in it, and some among them believe too, and none litigates Our Commands, except infidels.

48. Although you had not been reading my text before this, nor recording anything with your right hand, in which case, these obstinate natured would suspect you (to be an imposter, and libel too.)

49. Rather, these are open Couplets recorded in the hearts of those who are granted knowledge9, and none disputes Our Couplets except the disobedient.

50. And they say, “Why are not miracles sent to him from his Providence? Say, “Their exposition is only under Divine control and I am only an open warner.

51. Is it not sufficient for them that I have verily revealed unto you the Text which you read out to them, and verily in it, is mercy, forgiveness and advice (to do penance for sins) the faithful.

Moral

Prayers, if performed with conditions, prevent moral and religious vices, as no contract is valid without fulfilment of its obligations, so are prayers, liable to rejection in acceptance.

These are: Purity of intentions to discharge duty to God, self, and others. Object of prayers being to attain proximity of Divinity, Who is “All Pure.” Purity of intentions to proximate Divinity requires first knowledge of His Unity, sole sovereignty as sole Providence of creation, His Attributes, His likes and dislikes, His object of creation, etc., and this knowledge can only be obtained through His authorized Divine Lights, who shall warn on maintenance of purity of body and soul, by rendering self-pious, dutiful, polite and maintaining justice, before prayers.

Divine remembrance outside prayer time will keep you alert of the devil’s deceptions, thus maintaining you just and dutiful. Avoid fruitless discussion on religious matters unless with one who is serious on seeking religious truth with whom, with politeness, discuss on points you find him weak therein, suggesting means to rectify and rise in piety.

Verses 52 – 63

52. Say, “God is sufficient to testify between me and you. He knows what is in heaven and earth. Those who believe in false leaders, denying God, shall be the sufferers.

53. They are hurrying you up with punishment. Had not the Day of Reckoning been fixed up, punishment would have come suddenly, they being unaware.

54. They are hurrying you (to bring) up punishment. Verily hell has got round the infidels.

55. On the day it will envelop them from the top to the bottom and they will be addressed by God, “Savour the result of your deeds.”

56. Oh my faithful creatures, my land is vast, keep on praying to Me alone.

57. Everybody shall savour death when they shall revert unto Us.

58. Those who have embraced faith and acted righteously, We shall land in lofty paradises below which flow streams wherein shall they permanently reside, a fine reward for doers

59. who have patience and trusted their Providence.

60. And how many creepers you see not carrying their provision, but God provides them as he does you (let not anxiety thereof bar you from worshipping Him). He is Hearing and Knowing.

61. If you ask them, “Who created the Heavens and Earth, and set the sun and the moon revolving?” They will certainly say, “God.” Then where are they (in vain) wandering about?

62. God expands the provision on His creatures on whom He likes and contracts otherwise. Verily He is Omniscient.

63. If you ask them who sends from the clouds rain by which the earth enlivens after decay they will certainly say God. Say, “Thank God,” although most do not understand.

Moral

Followers of non-Divine Lights are condemned. They are being remunerated for their immediate labour, having no share in the future state, except hell. Do not be vexed about livelihood. Depend on Providence of the universe, seek where you are at liberty to pray to Him, as desired by Him.

Verses 64 – 69

64. And this world is nothing but play and gossip leading to hell whereas home of eternity is ever-lasting. Would they have known?

65. When they get on board the ship, they cry unto Him sincerely, and when We land safely, they begin to associate.

66. By denying My bounties, so let them enjoy. they will shortly find out.

67. Have they not noticed, We have made the Holy Sanctuary (at Mecca) impregnable, and its surroundings are subject to plunder. Are they going to believe in falsity denying Divine bounties?

68. And who can be a greater disobedient than one who libels God, and falsifies truth when it comes to Him? Is not hell a suitable abode for the infidels?

69. And those who shall strive (sincerely and diligently as needed) in seeking Me. Verily shall We guide on Our Right Path, and verily God is with the righteous.

Moral

1. World: The world is made up, for the most, of fools and knaves, both irreconcilable to Truth. First being slaves to a blind credulity (bigotry), the last, too jealous of that power. They have usurped over folly and ignorance of others which the establishment of the empire of reason would destroy (in resurrection).

2. Contact with the world either breaks or hardens the heart (hence be disinterested in worldly affairs).
 3. The life of the mere votary of the world is, of all others, the most uncomfortable for which is his god, does not always favour him, and which should be never.
 4. To understand the world is wiser than condemn it. To study the world is better than to shun it. To use the world (to eternal end) is nobler than to abuse it.
 5. Buying, possessing, accumulating (for the future state) merely with a view to secure Divine Will is not worldliness but to do it for the love of the world is bad.
 6. Never forget to thank God for His countless bounties by acting on Godly ways in all walks of life. Get attached to Divine refuge in preference to be far away from Him.
 7. Of all duties, love for truth with faith and constancy in its ranks first and highest. To serve God and love truth are one and the same, i.e. why it is said, “Peace if possible, but Truth, at any rate, c.f. “Lives of Ali and Hussain.”

- 1.Result of trial of the Prophet's companions after his demise unveiled the curtain of their apostasy, thus wasting their deeds and nullifying their claims to the future State.
- 2.escape God's punishment?
- 3.by virtue of his faith in entertaining Divine Lights.
- 4.Beware of their false statements; you will not be absolved of your responsibility of following the misguided.

5.Have they not noticed how God does start creation of vegetation, which fades later, and is being re-enlivened? So shall it be with you after death.

6.(renouncing every worldly connection)

7.Angels.

8.It is greatest because it will save you every moment you remember God against getting into the devil's scrapes.

9.the Learned Divine Lights who have been initiated by God, before being sent on Earth.

Surah Ar-Room, Chapter 30

In the Name of God the Compassionate, the Merciful

Verses 1 – 10

1. Alif, Lam, Meem.

2. The Romans were defeated.¹

3. On the battlefield and within a short period shall they win.²

4. Divine Law had been in force, and shall ever remain when it will please the faithful

5. with Divine assistance. He helps whom He likes, and He is Mighty and Merciful.

6. This is a Divine promise, which He shall not contradict, though most do not understand.

7. They understand the apparent affairs of the worldly (economics) and are ignorant of eternal affairs.³

8. Did they not think in themselves (by referring to the text) God has not created the heavens and earth and things in between in vain. Rather, with a definite purpose, and for a fixed period⁴ and verily most deny meeting their God.

9. Have they not travelled and seen what has been the fate of people before them who were mightier in power, had fertilized soils, flourished romantically,⁵ to most of whom came prophets, with miracles and God does not tyrannize any, but they tyrannize themselves.

10. Then the end of those who had been committing evil had been evil for having falsified Divine Commands and ridiculed them.⁶

Moral

1. In June 614 A.D. Jerusalem was taken by the Persians. The entire Christian world was horrified. The Holy “life-giving cross of Christ” was taken away until 622, when Heraclius was able to take the field against the Persians. This is a miracle of the Qur'an, presaging events before their occurrence. This is also the period of the Battle of Badr.

2. Few worldly people realize the object of creation, being taken up in worldly affairs. They cannot devote a few hours for life beyond death, which is of permanent nature. Would they have relied with confidence, having belief in the future State, which is the appetite of reason. This is the world of seeds, of causes, and of tendency. The other is the world of harvest and results and of perfected and eternal consequences. The most momentous concern of man is that stage, which he shall enter upon, after this short and transitory life has ended, and in proportion as eternity is of greater importance than time, so ought men to be solicitous, upon what grounds, their expectations with regard to that durable State are built and on what assurances, their hopes and fears stand.

3. Tyrants and oppressors when living are terrors to humankind, but when dead, they are the object of general contempt and scorn. For instance, the death of Nero was celebrated by the Romans with bonfires. Also deaths of Yazid, ‘Omar, Sa‘ad, etc. are similarly celebrated by the Muslims until today.
4. Sin is first pleasing, then it grows easy, then delightful, then frequent, then habitual, then confirmed, then the man is impenitent, then he obstinate, then he is resolved never to repent and thus he is ruined ultimately, being turned into an apostate.
5. When chaos and insecurity end, attempt at restoring social order by promoting cultural creation, viz. economic, political, organizational, and moral, without guarding its impedance is made. Result has been the rise and fall of civilization (of our own making). Is India, amidst countrywide floods, marching successfully to civilization? Find out causes, so often repeated here.
6. It is only the bread of heaven and water of life (piety) which can so satisfy in which we shall hunger and thirst no more.

Verses 11 – 19

11. God starts with creation shall re-enliven it when you all will revert unto Him.

12. And on Reckoning Day the culprits will stand disappointed.

13. They will not have any among their accomplices to intercede on their behalf. Rather, they would themselves deny them.

14. And on Judgment Day, the gathering will part.⁷

15. And those who embraced faith and acted righteously shall be honoured in Paradise.

16. And those who denied Us falsified Our Couplets and disbeliefed facing Us in Eternity, shall be brought to bear punishment of hell.

17. So you pray to God during the night and morning⁸

18. as also prayers are due to Him in Heaven and Earth, towards evening and noon.⁹

19. He brings out the living from the dead and vice versa¹⁰ and enlivens the earth after its decay, and similarly shall you be raised alive (after death).

Moral

Five times daily prayers are summed up in the 17th and 18th Couplets. The righteous shall be admitted in paradise and culprits in perdition.

Verses 20 – 27

20. And of his signs is creation of you (as men) from Earth. Then like men, you are widely spread.

21. And of His signs is creation of your wife from you, to exhilarate you and it is He who created love and sympathy between you. Verily in this are signs from the contemplative.

22. And of His signs are creation of the heavens and earth, difference in your language, and your colour. Verily in this are signs for the learned.

23. And of His signs is your sleep in the night and awakening in the day to earn livelihood out of His grace. Verily in this are signs for those who listen to it.

24. And of His signs are indications of lightening to warn you and create hope and down pour of rain from clouds with which the soil vegetates after decay. Verily in this are signs for the sensible.

25. And of His signs is stability of the sky and Earth at His Commands, and when he will call you at a single trumpet call, you will suddenly emerge out of the grave.

26. Everything in the heavens and earth supplicates Him.¹¹

27. It is He Who creates and re-enlivens which is an easy task for Him, and for Him are the glorious instances in Heaven and earth and He is Mighty and Wise.

Moral

Every day is a little life and our whole life is but a day repeated. Therefore, live as if it would be the last doing virtuous deeds and procrastinating evil.

Verses 28 – 40

28. God has exemplified (His case of derogating association) for you from your own self. Is it possible for you to make a partner of your own (concern) in your slaves and in your provision although you are on the same level (as a creature) you would not like lest he may put you to loss (being incapable and disqualified)?¹²

29. Rather, the disobedient followed their passionate selections without knowledge (so as to guide them) whom God deprives, who shall guide? They shall not get any help.

30. You better direct yourself to the Right Way (which is straight forward). It is a natural religion¹³ on which He has created His creation, wherein there is no change. This is a straight forward faith, though most do not (by following passion) do not understand.

31. Direct yourself to it, fear Him, keep steady at prayers and do not be among the associators (developing creative minds) under varying avocations, by breaking away from His bond of religion (in His Entity, attributes, actions, or cult).

32. Be not those who cut asunder their faith, and broke themselves into groups, each one being pleased with their own tenet.¹⁴

33. When calamity approaches humans, they cry unto their Providence in distress, directing (sincerely) themselves to Him, and when We savour them Our mercy, a group of them starts associating others with Him.

34. Let them deny Our bounties by (associating others) and let them enjoy. Shortly, you will come to know whether they are drifting.

35. Have We revealed to them any evidence, on the authority of which they associate?

36. When We savour them of Our mercy, they become exulted, and when We savour them of punishment¹⁵ due to their deeds (in the past) they become despondent.

37. Have they not noticed, God of course, expands the provision on whom He likes, and contracts otherwise? Verily in this are signs for a faithful community.

38. Give relations their share and the poor and the wayfarers. This is good for those who seek Divine Will, and they alone shall attain the entire salvation.

39. It does not increase before God what you lent (to meet immediate needs) by demanding interest from the faithful (on your capital) but what you give in tithe to win Divine Will. Verily this increases its value.¹⁶

40. God created you and provided you and then will put you to death and will enliven you again. Can any associate of yours do that? Pure and Glorious is He from those whom they associate him with Him.

Moral

All revealed religions, through their authorized Divine Lights, were in nature Islamic, i.e. resigning to Divine Will and true in their origin having come from the Truth from God, the Almighty, following of which assured salvation.

When, however, they were tampered with or misconstrued by adversaries of the Divine Lights, to serve their worldly ends, they had to be amended by subsequent Divine Lights, sent by God alone, demanding their obedience and presaged by Divine Lights of their age, from successors or preceding generations, under Divine Command, hence any obstinacy to submission on the part of the latter, on plea of their faith had identical foundational tenets, proceeding from God is inadmissible and does not admit their claim to salvation, as the following the way of Divine Lights, of latest revealed cults in religion, having overpowered all preceding religious cults guaranteeing immunity from association and leading to salvation, although it is unwelcome to them.

41. Sedition has already broken out on land and sea on account of human deeds, so as to inflict on them a part punishment, so they may revert (to penance).

42. Tell them to move on Earth and see the fate of those who preceded them. Most of them were associators.

43. Better you direct yourself to the right way before coming of the Day of Judgment when it will not be averted and you will have to part with your kinsmen.

44. Sin of infidelity is on those who commit and for those is a reward who acts righteously, as a bed to rest on.¹⁷

45. So He may reward the faithful, who acted righteously out of His grace for he evidently does not favour infidels.

46. And of His signs are sending of the wind giving tidings of rain to taste of His Mercy, and sailing of ships, by force of the wind to enable to earn livelihood out of His grace so you may be grateful to Him.

47. And before you We sent prophets to generations before whom they brought miracles¹⁸ and We avenged them for their crimes demonstrating Our (bounden duty of) assistance to the faithful.

48. God is He Who commands the wind, causing clouds which are spread over the sky, then separating them in parts where he likes, you see them dropping (on soil growing vegetation) profiting whom, by downpour of rain. He likes when they are pleased.

49. When before their dropping, they were despondent.

50. Look at the Divine Mercy how He enlivens after decay wherein verily lies a fact of His, enlivening the dead and He is Omnipotent.

51. If We had sent the wind which would have turned their fields yellow, they would have been ungrateful.

52. For verily, you cannot make the dead hearted hear nor the deaf when you call them, when they turn their backs towards you.

53. And you are not going to guide the blind hearted from their misguidance, only those who can hear believe in Our Couplets and supplicates Us.

Moral

Lightening, floods, earthquakes, landslips, cyclones, typhoons, are all Divine warnings, and not casual catastrophes to which man is subject, as usually interpreted by men who are desirous of making headway in the world with creative mind.

Verses 54 – 60

54. It is God Who created you weak in your (childhood), then made you strong in (youth) then after matured strength, reduced you weak (in old age) when senses begin to depart (dotage).

55. And when Reckoning Day occurs, the culprits will swear they did not live more than an hour. Similarly, were they falsifying¹⁹ regarding Eternity, etc.

56. And those gifted with knowledge and faith in Divine Text²⁰ will say, verily you lived for a fixed period²¹ and this is the Reckoning Day in which you did not have belief.

57. And on that day, neither their excuse will be of any avail, nor their penance and reversion to Him.²²

58. And in this Book We have given many an example for (benefit of) men, and if you bring even a miracle, the infidels will devalue it.

59. Thus, have We sealed the hearts of the people who do not know.

60. Have patience, verily God's promise is going to be fulfilled, lest those who are not sure may not, by their lie, render you, entertain misgivings regarding your message (keep firm in its propagation).²³

Moral

Mort virtues develop by adopting patience and cheerfulness as former is essence of faith and latter mother of virtues. Guard against hasty extempore arguments leading to excitement as their ultimate fate is failure and repentance, whereas contemplative well-designed acts have been pioneer in raising one's estimation.

Be modest, contemplative, cheerful, though sober and grave and avoid public enmity, which generates the worst diseases of the soul, viz. jealousy, backbiting, lie, allegation, ridicule, and pleasure at another's mishaps, thus rendering the heart, incapable of attaining Divine Will. Avoid evil desires, which develop love for property and children and these unless they are secured and devoted absolutely to Divine Will, under legitimate means, result in human destruction.

Be quick in obliging in virtuous acts, though not against justice, careful against notorious mischief mongers, forbearing and forgiving to the obedient, but strict to the incurable and inveterate disobedient but within bounds of justice, kind, polite, and advisory to the obedient, but maintaining self-respect to the disobedient in enforcing rules of the department if sub-ordinate, so long as he continues persisting therein and to one's better half in domestic administration but never to parents, as no virtues are appreciated at their displeasures, inimical to self-opinion and self-conceitedness due to knowledge, position, birth – virtues and other Divine gifts (as it is highly self-delusive and destructive), tender and highly unreservedly self-denying.

Never rest content on self-opinion, unless founded on reason, made to conform to Divine Law, rightly expounded by those authorized. Avoid joke, shooting and going to the royal gate, as they harden the heart.

In the Name of God the Compassionate, the Merciful

Verses 1 – 11

- 1. Alif, lam, meem.
- 2. These are couplets of the Text from (God) the Wise.
- 3. As a source of guidance and mercy to the obliging¹.
- 4. Who are steady at prayers and payment of tithe and are certain of Eternity.
- 5. They are on guidance from the Providence and they are to attain salvation.
- 6. Ad of men are those who misguide others without having knowledge² and hold God's Commands under ridicule. (They are those) for them is disgraceful punishment.

7. When Our couplets are read out to them they turn away out of pride as if their ears give them tidings of intense punishment.

8. Verily those who have embraced faith and acted virtuously shall be in a bountiful Paradise.

9. Wherein shall they remain on a true promise from God Who is Mighty and Wise.

10. He created the heavens and the earth without apparent support and fixed mountains on earth to prevent it from tilting and spread all over it all kinds of (co-ordinate) creepers and sent rain from the clouds whereby grow splendid (plentiful) vegetations of all kinds.

11. This is God's creation. Show me what any other god has created besides Him (i.e. Me) like this. Rather, the disobedient are in open misguidance.

Moral

Self-explanatory, as deprecating musical entertainments towards causing ungratefulness by disregarding Divine bounties.

Verses 12 – 19

12. Verily We gave Luqman wisdom to be grateful to God. He who is grateful reaps its benefit for self, and he who is ungrateful suffers likewise. Verily God is Independent and Praiseworthy (for His universal bounty).

13. Recollect when Luqman told his son while advising him, “Oh my son, do not associate any with God. Verily it is the mightiest sin.”

14. And We commanded man regarding the parents whose (mother carried him during conception) under continual pain, nursing him for two years, to be grateful to Me and to his parents, as to Me, is your reversion.

15. And if they compel you to associate any with Me, having no knowledge do not carry out their orders, but behave virtuously with them and follow him (Divine Light) who is directed to Me, since to Me is your reversion, when I shall advise you of you action.

16. “Oh my soul, if a sin be the least little bit (in its degree) like a grain of a mustard seed, hidden underneath a rock or in the heavens or earth, it shall be brought before God, Who is verily minutely acquainted with everything.”

17. “Oh my son be constant at prayers, advising virtues and barring men from vices, and be patient under misfortune (caused by advising virtues and barring vices), verily this one of the soundest resolutions.

18. “Do not be puffed up and do not strut on Earth. Verily God does not like the proud miser.

19. “Adopt the mean course in walking, and be moderate in your voice. Verily the voice of an ass is most unpleasant.”

Moral

There is no such penalty for error and folly as to see one's children suffer. There is no such reward for a well spent life as to see one's children religiously trained and well started in life with fixed character and noble breeding. Study their spiritual, mental, and moral attitude: dignify labour in their eyes and propose a fitting avocation for them.

Verses 20 – 30

20. Have you not seen, God has made serviceable to you whatever is the heavens and earth? And God has completed His bounties, open and hidden, and of men are some litigating about God without knowledge, guidance, and of an authoritative initiative (know he is on a ruinous path) those following non-Divine Lights.

21. And when they are asked to comply with Divine revelation, they say, “We shall follow the way our forefathers were treading.³ Will they do so even were the devil to invite them to the punishment of hell?

22. Rather, he who directs himself to God and is faithful (to His true Representatives) verily has he held an inflexible rope (between him and God) and all the affairs are to end in Him.

23. Be not sorry for their disbelief in Us. They shall revert unto Us when We shall inform them of their actions. Verily God is acquainted with the secrets of the heart.

24. We shall profit them with a little of the world⁴and drag them ruthlessly to intense punishment of hell.⁵

25. And if you ask them who created the heavens and earth, they shall certainly vouch “God.” Say, “Thank God,” but most do not understand.⁶

26. For God is the sovereignty of the heavens and earth. Verily He is Self-sufficient and Praiseworthy (for His universal bounties).

27. If all the trees on Earth were to be turned into pens and all the seas be converted into in, and be enhance seven times, they would not suffice to complete the record His attributes.⁷ Verily God is Mighty and Wise.

28. (The question of) your creation and rising alive again is a matter of twinkling of an eye. Verily God is Hearing and Seeing.

29. Do you not see God transforms night into day and vice versa and has set the sun and the moon into motion, all under dynamic condition, for a fixed period and verily God is acquainted with your actions.

30. This is because of His being the real Author (and Prime mover) and certainly those, whom you are in search of, excepting Him, have no real existence in them. Verily God is Mighty and Sublime.

Moral

Only today is yours: if lost, it is lost forever lest you may say, “I wasted time and now does time waste me.” Importance of following the Divine Lights is remarkably stressed here. Any other way is merely ruinous. Also, labour on worldly pleasures shall lead to intense punishment. Powers endowed on Divine Lights are countless.

Verses 31 – 34

31. Have you not noticed the ship floating in the sea as a proof of Divine bounty for you and also as a miracle? ⁸ Verily in this are signs for the patient⁹ and are grateful.¹⁰

32. When the billows cover them up like clouds, they cry and pray unto God, as sincere devotees, and when We safely land them, then some of the are moderate and none litigates Our commands except these dishonest infidels.

33. Oh you people, fear your Providence of the (Death) Day when neither the son will intercede on behalf of his farther, nor vice versa, and God's promise is, of course, certain and lent not worldly life deceive you and let not the devil keep you off your duties under procrastination.

34. Verily God alone knows the exact time of the Day of Reckoning, exact time of raining, exact nature of the child, the woman has conceived, exact time of our action tomorrow, and the exact place of your death on Earth. Verily God has the knowledge of these secrets.

Moral

Knowledge of the above five facts is limited to God and these form Divine secretes solely reserved unto Him.

Surah As-Sajdah, Chapter 32

In the Name of God the Compassionate, the Merciful

Verses 1 – 11

1. Alif, lam, meem.

2. There is no doubt in which this book is revealed by the Providence of the worlds.

3. Do they say he has fabricated it? Rather, it is a fact from your Providence to warn the tribe to whom before this no warner has come so far so they may be guided.

4. God is He Who create the heavens and the earth and in between in six days, then He turned towards the Arsh (for energizing). There is not other God except Him, your Lord and Intercessor. Do you not understand?

4. He plans all affairs touching the heavens and the earth by means of angels. On the day, when they shall be presented to Him, duration of which, according to your calculation, is 1000 years.

6. Certainly such is your Lord the Almighty and Merciful, Knower of Secrets and open.

7. Who created whatever, everything to its perfection, and started creation of humans with earth.

8. Then made his progeny from a dirty drop of liquid.

9. Then he gave it a complete form and blew soul into it, creating although few appreciate and are grateful.

10. They said, “What! Once we are lost in the earth, are we going to be enlivened?” Rather, they disown to face their Providence.

11. Say, “Death will come to you through the angels especially nominated, when you shall revert unto your Providence.”

Moral

Let death be daily before your eyes and you will not entertain any abject thought, nor too eagerly covet anything: (1) On death and judgment, heaven and hell, (2) who oft do think, ust needs die well.

Verses 12 – 22

12. If you would see the culprits, standing with downcast head before the Creator, and praying, “Oh our Providence, we saw and heard. Let us revert to the world, to act righteously, we certainly owe (fealty to Your sovereignty).”

13. If We had desired, e would have bestowed guidance on every soul but My Commands shall prove true in which I shall fill hell with all spirits and men.²

14. Savour the punishment (of hell) for your having neglected to face Me on this day. We shall disregard them ad savour them permanent punishment of hell for their deeds.

15. Only those who obey the commands of Mine³ when reminded of Judgment Day fall into prostration and glorify their Providence and are not proud.

16. They turn their sides on the bed and pray to their Providence, under fear and hope, and spend in His name of what We have endowed on them.

17. No one knows what blessings We have reserved to enlighten and cool their eyes for their deeds.

18. What! Can a faithful and disobedient be alike? Certainly not.

19. Those who embrace faith and acted righteously have paradise for them⁴ as an entertainment for their deeds.

20. And those who disobeyed have their destination in hell, when they will desire to come out of it, they shall be repulsed therein to savour punishment of hell for their falsification.

21. And besides this permanent punishment, they shall be punished in the grave or⁵ where they will have to resort.

22. Who can be more disobedient than one, when advised by Divine Lights, turns away from them? Verily shall We avenge the culprits.

Moral

Self-sufficient, if carefully grasped.

Verses 23 – 30

23. Verily We revealed unto Moses the Torah. Do not be in doubt of meeting Moses⁶ and We made it a guidance for the Jews.

24. We made in them Divine Lights under Our own nomination for their virtue of bearing patiently tyranny⁷ and similarly shall We raise.⁸

25. Verily your Providence shall decide on Judgment day mutual difference (between followers of Truth and those of passion).

26. Has not destruction of previous generations guided them (the people of Mecca) whose house they are passing by (during travel). Do they not list to it with the heart for the sake of guidance?

27. Have they not seen Our sending water into the part of Earth which could not be watered by gravitation, by means of rain and producing vegetation and from which their animals and they eat and drink. Have they no sense?

28. And they ask you to inform them when the Day of Judgment will occur if you are true.

29. Say, “Judgment day will not benefit the infidels’ faith and they will not be given any opportunity (to plead an excuse).”

30. You turn away your face from them and await as they are awaiting the Day of Judgment.

Moral

Bodily notes will suffice.

- 1.various senses, eyes, ears, reasoning, etc.
- 2.This is Divine decree, which shall be fulfilled. there is no other go but to supplicate the Divine Lights, in seeking Divine proximity willy nilly.
- 3.personified in Divine Lights.
- 4.on the right side of the Divine Throne.
- 5.during Resurrection.
- 6.During your ascension where you meet other prophets.
- 7.Atg the hands of enemies during guidance.
- 8.12 Divine Lights of Our choice for your sect.

Surah Al-'Ahzab, Chapter 33

In the Name of God the Compassionate, the Merciful

Verses 1 – 8

1. Oh you Prophet, fear God and do not follow the infidels and hypocrites¹. Verily GOD IS Knowing and Wise.

2. Follow what is revealed unto you from your Providence. God, of course, knows what you do.

3. Trust in God and God is sufficient as your assistant.

4. (Oh you people) God has not created two hearts in the chest and He has not made your wives² your mothers (to cast them off) nor has He made your adopted sons to be legitimate sons to be heirs. This is your decision. God says the truth and dictates the right path.

5. If you call them by their father's name, it is fait before God, and if you do not know their father's name, they are your brethren in religion or friends, and there is no harm if you have made a mistake, so long as you did not mean it intentionally, and God is Forgiving and Merciful.

6. The Prophet has (a right to) exercise the power over souls of the faithful more than they themselves, and the Prophet's wives are their mothers and some of his relations (who are Immaculate) are superior (in respect of succession to Imamate) as per Divine Text, in giving the faithful and refusing others, except you act otherwise by will. This is recorded in the Divine Text.

7. Recollect when We exacted a promise from prophets and from you and Noah, Abraham, Moses, and Jesus, son of Mary, as to Our sovereignty and that promise was grave.

8. And We shall question the truthful regarding sincerity of their truth on the Day of Judgment when, for the infidels (inclusive of hypocrites), we have fixed a terrible punishment.

Moral

1. As hearts, like cisterns, can remain pure when they hold pure water, and become impure otherwise, and are incapable of holding sincere love of God with impurity of worldly affection. In fact, the condition of the heart assumes four different aspects:

(1) when it is absolutely and sincerely open to Divine guidance, it is enlightened having no other lover superseding Divine love,

(2) it is topsy turvy like that of an associator, just as an inverted tub cannot hold water, so nothing is Divine can appeal to an associator,

(3) it is sealed despite appreciating the truth, on account of desire for power and wealth, it could not become sincere and this hypocrisy,

(4) it is at times purified when it thanks God for Divine bounties, is patient under trials, is repentant, under commission of sins, and at times it becomes obstinate, refusing advice and ignoring warning.

2. The Prophet's wives are likened to a mother being illegal for marriage but are unlike mothers incapable of inheritance and need conversation behind a curtain.

The Prophet holds sway over the faithful's soul. The condition of the Prophet's companions may be likened with their behaviour in a crusade. If the companion was asked to participate in a crusade, his behaviour was either he laid down his life or he fled away or pleaded an excuse. The first was a faithful, second was an infidel and the third was a hypocrite. reward of these three is given in Couplet 8.

Couplet 4 in the above paragraph was revealed to stop the customary practice of repudiating the wives among pagan Arabs before promulgation of Islam by expressing "mother" in her favour, thus injuriously assimilating them.

Verses 9 – 20

9. Oh you faithful, remember the Divine bounties on you when (congregated) forces of Jews and Quraish infidels intended to attack you in the "Battle of the Trench" when We helped you by sending (an army in the form of gale) against them and an army of invisible angels and God was watching what you were doing.

10. Recollect when the infidel Quraish army approached from the high plateau of Mecca and your eyes began to waver and reached the hearts to the larynx of the lungs, having expand out of fright and you began to entertain will ideas against God.

11. At that time the faithful were tried and shaken heavily.

12. And recollect when the hypocrites and those who had disease in their hearts3said, “God and His Prophet had made no promise but played us false.”⁴

13. And recollect when a group amongst them said, “Oh you Madinites, there is no hope for you except to fly back home” and were asking permission, under false plea, in which your houses were open to attack whereas it was not so, but you had decided to run away.

14. Had the enemies attacked them, and if they had been asked to spread sedition, they would certainly have done, and if they had withheld, they would have done, under narrow minority.

15. And certainly, they had made a covenant of self-sacrifice with God in which they would not flee from the battlefield, and God shall certainly question on its breach.

16. Say, “Your flight, if you did fly, will not save you from death or slaughter. If you participated (half-hearted) and if you did escape death, and did outlive that living would not benefit you (in Eternity).”⁵

17. Say, “Who can save you from Divine punishment if He intends?” And if He wants to be merciful to you, who can prevent you (from its receipt)? And you shall not find except God, sympathizer and assistant.

18. Certainly God knows those amongst you who are procrastinating to participate in a crusade and those who invite their brethren to come away to them although they participate but little.

19. They are miserly in helping you and when a dangerous occasion crops up you will see them staring at you like those who assume at approaching death, when the dangerous moment passes off, to participate the booty, they fall upon it extenuating their tongue and taunting you. These are the people, who have not embraced faith, and God has wasted their actions and this is easy for God.

20. They are thinking that the infidel army has not gone away, and if they reappear their desire would be to desert you and go away (to the forest), like the Bedouins, whence they would try to get information about you and if they had stayed with you, they would not have fought except a few.

Moral

Like an engine, the human body derives energy from carbon of food and oxygen is breathed in from outside air, through the nose and larynx of the lungs, and the left side of the heart below the lungs circulates blood through arteries and to the right of which, through veins is transmitted for purification to the lungs which return it to the left side of the heart in turn.

Couplet 17 was revealed on utterance of Khalifa 2 when he saw Omer ibn Abdewad challenging them.

Temperament of the faith of the Prophet's companions (hypocritical mostly) be compared with those Hussain at Karbala. Their rewards shall be likewise.

On Shawwal 5th Hijra, Quraish infidels travelled all over Arabia to collect an army, as also from various Jewish tribes until their forces numbered 10,000. The Prophet had been driven out of Medina to Khaibre on breach of covenant. Bani Nazeer, a Jewish tribe of descent of Aaron. Hai ibn Akhtab, their leader, in conspiracy with the infidel Quraish said, "The Prophet has driven out Bani Kaiaka out of their houses and Bani Kariza, 700 strong, men of whom lived two miles away from Medina had a pact with the Prophet to assist him in the time of need. Hai succeeded in getting the pact breached, the result was the infidel Quraish attacked from higher plateau and they (Jews) from a lower plateau.

To meet 10,000 strong, the Prophet, on the advice of Sulman the Persian, dug a trench to safeguard the Medinites near Uhud. The infidel Quraish besieged the Muslim army and Umar ibn Abdawad crossed the trench on horseback and offered to fight out the contest. The Prophet's companions got nervous and the 17th Couplet was revealed. The Prophet asked three times his companions to respond to the call and none would come forward each time except Ali, who ultimately was selected with prayers to God. Ali offered three alternatives to the adversary, viz. to embrace Islam, to go back taking his army, to come down for his horse, as Ali was also on foot.

Rejecting the first offers he accepted the third and was beheaded by Ali. This created a panic. Ali, without removing his (enemy's) most precious armour, took his head to the Prophet upon which the prophet said Ali's single stroke of his sword of the was more than joint prayers of man and spirit until the Day of Judgment.

Omar ibn Abdawad's sister, when she approached to mourn her brother's death, seeing his body, was surprised at Ali's having left her brother's most precious armour untouched, and said, "Verily he (Ali) was chivalrous." And God had declared, through Gabriel, previously on the battlefield of Uhud in which Ali was the only warrior. Thus is established Ali as a hero of the Text (i.e. in the Glorious Qur'an), for God is Pure and Truth and loves truth, and Ali has been personified as Truth in the words of the Prophet.

Therefore, cursed be his enemy as they are enemies of Truth (i.e. God the Almighty). It is indisputably affirmed under the Prophet's confirmation, Ali's sword established Islam.

Verses 21 – 27

21. Verily in the Prophet of God, is a fine example (to emulate) for him who fears God and fears the Day of Judgment and likes to glorify God considerably.

22. When the faithful saw the tribe, they said, “This is what God and his Prophet had promised.” Both God and the Prophet have been True. It did not but enhance their conviction and supplication (to God and the Prophet).

23. Among the faithful are such who proved true to their covenant among whom were such who laid down their lives.⁶ And there are some who are awaiting martyrdom without changing their determination⁷.

24. So God may reward the true for their truthful discharge of their promise (they had covenanted with the Prophet and secured Paradise). And punish the hypocrites, if He chose, by either involving them in further trials of the world (and later condemning them to hell) or accept their penance. Verily God is Forgiving and merciful.

25. God turned down the infidel⁸ failed to get assistance and booty by sending a heavy gale and angels who uprooted their tents and entirely routed them and God proved sufficient rescue to the faithful⁹ and God is Omnipotent and Overpowering.

26. ¹⁰ And¹¹ and the Jewish garrison finally yielded, by leaving the stronghold in fright,¹² whereupon you were killing a group and captivating the other.

27. And made you inheritors of their lands, homes, and property, and of such lands whereupon you had not set foot before, and God is Omnipotent.

Moral

Bodily notes are enough (history for details may be consulted). Note word “martyr” religiously is applicable to a faithful laying down his life for Divine Will under the commands of Divine Lights and not otherwise as politically commonly referred to nowadays.

Verses 28 – 34

28. Oh you Prophet, tell your wives, “If you are fond of the world and its decoration comes along and I shall divorce you without mutual discontent, profiteering you.¹³

29. But if you seek God and His Messenger and the abode of the Hereafter, then know that God has prepared a great reward for those of you who do good deed.

30. Oh you wives of the Prophet, if anyone of you daringly alters upon evil deeds¹⁴ she shall be doubly punished, and this is easy for God.¹⁵

31. And anyone among you who is content with supplication to God and His prophet, and acts virtuously, shall We double the reward and grant her gracious provision.

32. Oh you wives of the Prophet, you are not like other women. If you are contented, do not talk softly and in suppressed tone to attract others, but talk straight forward virtuously by keeping (indoors when talking with a stranger).¹⁶

33. And be in your house and do not come out (to participate in the crusade and behave like) those of the (ignorant) past.

34. And glorify God by reading the Text and contemplating over the religious Philosophy, therein keeping at home. Verily God is minutely watching and is acquainted with your deeds.

Moral

Later part of Couplet 33 refers exclusively to Divine Lights of the Prophet's family and is misplaced here.

Most renowned Sunni Commentators also agree to this claim.

Verses 35 – 40

35. Verily obedient men and women and faithful men and women and Divine remembering men and women with prayers, and true men and women and patient men and women, and God fearing men and women and tithe paying men and women and fasting men and women, and guarding private parts men and women, ad glorifying God men and women: for all of them has God reserved forgiveness and mighty reward.

36. It is not for the faithful men and women when once God and His Prophet have decided in their favour (on any affair) to controvert the decision, on that affair which falls under their discussion. He who shall disobey God and his Prophet is in open misguidance.

37. Recollect, oh you Prophet, when you were advising Zaid, on whom God had showered bounty¹⁷ and whom you have obliged¹⁸ to keep his wife to himself and fear God, whilst you were afraid to disclose what God has advised you, and God has to reveal it and you feared public criticism, whereas God deserves to be feared (in supersession thereof). When Zaid had decided to divorce his wife (Zainab) and We, in order the faithful should not have any objection in the future to marry the divorced wife of an adopted son, decided (Zainab's) marriage in your favour on completion of divorce and God had His Will done (so as to obliterate the pagan practice of not marrying ever the wife of an adopted son).

38. There is no hindrance to the Prophet in (performance of) an affair, which God has decided in his favour. This has been a uniform Divine ruling since preceding generations and have Divine Commands been based on definite principles.

39. Prophets are deputies for transmission of Divine Messages, who fully appreciate Divine Commands and fear Him alone and fear none else in the transmission except Him and is God enough to audit the account.

40. And Muhammad is father to nobody amongst the males of you but God's Messenger and the last of the sealing Prophets and God is Omniscient.

Moral

1. Muslim is he who trusts in God. 2. Mo'min is he who admits sovereignty of Divine Light over his soul and body. 3. Obedient is he who is submissive in obligatory and optional acts. 4. Sadiq is one who is true in word and deed. 5. Patient is one who observes patience in adhering to virtues and avoiding vices. 6. God-fearing is one who does not look right and left in prayers. 7. Charitable is one who pays alms a penny per week. 8. Fast-bearer is one who observes fast on the 13th, 14th, and 15th of every month. 9. Chaste is one who guards against unlawful things. 10. Zakir (glorifying) is one who says prayers five times with conditions and repeats "Rosary of Fatima" after prayers five times a day.

Note:2. God has given powers to Divine Lights over soul and body of the faithful, both in acts voluntary and otherwise and none else can abrogate this privilege to self.

Verses 41 – 52

41. Oh you faithful, glorify God considerably

42. and glorify Him morning and evening.

43. It is God Who sends blessings on you and His angels¹⁹ so he may take you out of darkness into light of guidance and verily God is merciful to the faithful.²⁰

44. When they shall meet God they shall be welcome and high rewards have been equipped for them.

45. Oh you Prophet, We have sent you a witness and giver of tidings and a warner.²¹

46. And one inviting the public to God with His sanction as a luminary.²²

47. And give tidings²³ to the faithful of Mighty Divine Grace.

48. And do not follow the infidels and hypocrites, overlook their injury and depend upon God Who is enough to guard.²⁴

49. Crusade was obligatory in Medina. Oh you Prophet, when you marry faithful women and (happen to) divorce them before intercourse, there is no period of probation for them. Give them something and set them free virtuously (paying half the fixed dowry).

50. Oh you Prophet, We have made legal for you alone to take to a wife one who willingly comes to you after paying her dowry²⁵ and those female slaves which fall to your lot in booty and your cousins from your father and mother's side²⁶ who fled with you as refugees and any faithful woman who offers herself to you to come under your protection without dowry²⁷ provided you approve of it. You can alone take her under wifehood in such a case. This is your special privilege, barring the faithful. We fully known what We have made obligatory regarding the wives on them and regarding slaves, so there should be no restriction against you, an God is Forgiving and Merciful.

51. Out of them retain whom you like, calling them back to you and divorce whom you like. There is no objection to you in this special case so their eyes may be cooled and they may not feel grieved and they be pleased with your gifts, and God knows what is in your heart and God is Knowing and Forgiving.²⁸

52. Thereafter none is legal to you nor for you to substitute others for them, although you may be attracted by their beauty, excepting slaves, and God is circumspective of all.

Moral

God sends 1000 blessings and the angels pray 1000 times forgiveness for him who prays ten times the grace for the Prophet and His Immaculate Family. (Vide 43 Supra). The Prophet and Divine Nominees are the only Divine Lights for guidance and none else can undertake this grave responsibility.

Verses 53 – 58

53. Oh you faithful, do not enter the Prophet's house except when you are invited to dine, but that too, not prior to dinnertime, so as not to have to wait for dinner, but when you are invited, enter the house, and after finishing dinner, leave it without chatting, as it offends the Prophet, who feels ashamed to remark, but God does not mind to speak out the truth, and when you ask anything from his wives, do so from behind the curtain. This is safe-guarding the purity of hearts – yours and theirs, and it is not fair on your part to vex the Prophet of God, nor is admissible to marry his widows ever. Verily this is a great sin before God.²⁹

54. Whether you expose or hide, verily God is acquainted with everything.

55. There is no harm to come out for them before their fathers, sons, brothers, nephews by brothers or sisters or ladies or female slaves. They should fear God and certainly God is witness to all.

56. Verily God and His angels shower and pray blessings over the Prophet respectively. Oh you faithful, you also pray blessings for him and his immaculate family.

57. Verily those who grieve God and His Prophet are cursed by God in the world and in Eternity, and is intense punishment for them.

58. Those who injure faithful men and women, without any cause, carries a responsibility over their heads and commits open sins.

Moral

(Men are either faithful or otherwise. Do no torment the faithful, and do not act otherwise before ignorant else you will be like them). As per Couplet 57, those who grieve the Prophet are cursed by God in this world and in eternity shall be punished. The Prophet has repeatedly called is beloved daughter Fatima, “a piece of his liver” (allegorically) on functioning of which life exists. If anybody torments Fatima, as though he injures the Prophet for which hell is the punishment. So, also, he said, “If anybody worried or tormented Ali to the extent of his hair, he is cursed, and the cursed receives the door of penance closed against him.

Couplet 58 is revealed against those who have tormented Ali and Fatima, who are immaculate, and those who are faithful should not similarly be vexed without rhyme or reason, as the faithful are highly estimated in the Eyes of God.

Verses 59 – 68

59. Oh you Prophet, tell your wives and daughters and faithful women to throw their veils over their faces. This shall prevent them from recognition and save them from injury, and God is Forgiving (to the penitent) and Merciful (to the obedient).

60. If they (hypocrites) and whose hearts are diseased, and false propagandists in Medina do not keep off from mischief (of fanning false propaganda) We shall certainly set you to persecute them when they will not be in your neighbourhood, except a few.

61. They are cursed if they (died unforgiven). Wherever they can be found³⁰they shall be seized and slain as they deserve (to be treated).³¹

62. Divine Command has ever been such, of old, and you will not find any change in Divine Law.

64. Verily God has cursed infidels and equipped for them flaming fire of hell.

64. Verily God has cursed the infidels and equipped for them flaming fire of hell.

65. Wherein shall they ever remain without finding any sympathizer or intercessor.

66. When their faces shall be hurled headlong into the fire, they will be saying woe to us, would we have obeyed God and His Prophet³².

67. And they will say, “Oh our Providence, we obeyed our chiefs and bosses who misguided us from the right path.

68. “Oh our Providence, double the punishment for them and curse them heavily.”

Moral

Self-sufficient with bodily notes.

Verses 69 – 73

69. Oh you faithful, be not like the Jews who vexed Moses³³. God exonerated him from what they labelled him and he (Moses) owned a great position before God.

70. Oh you faithful fear God and be straightforward.

71. Improve your acts (under faith) so God may forgive your sins. He who shall obey God and His Prophet (in respect of all and his successors) shall *verily achieve a mighty success.*³⁴

72. Verily We offered the trust³⁵ to the heavens and earth and mountains, all of whom refused to take up its responsibility, fearing the consequences on its failure but man undertook it because he was an ignorant fool.

73. With a result in which God shall punish the hypocrites³⁶ men and women (for their indifference to search Divinity) or knowingly facing it and shall accept the sincere penance of the faithful,³⁷ men and women and God is Forgiving and Merciful.

Moral

A fully fledged faithful or a true Shia is attributed with (1) daily attendance to congregational prayers, (2) regular payment of tithe, (3) regular in feeding paupers, (4) is kind to orphans, (5) maintains purity of clothes, (6) is ever ready for timely prayers, (7) fulfills trust, (8) refunds deposits, (9) is straightforward in dealings, (10). is up for truth, (11) is participating in crusade, (12) observes fasts, (13) is regular at midnight prayers, (14) is not worrying neighbours, (15) is pleasing in choosing companions, (16) walks meekly, (17) enquires after widows, (18) attends funerals, (19) never lies, and (20) is ever selfsacrificing.

As such he never postpones penance, and is therefore mercified by God against a hypocrite, who enters Islam, to be benefitted thereby, and doubts future Divine Punishment as against an infidel, who denies Eternity, knowingly and faces Divine Prophetship for fear of losing material gains of the world which is transitory.

1. Note the austerity of the Divine tone while depicting the hypocritical characteristics of the Prophet's companions.
2. as you have to represent them.
3. on seeing large forces of the enemy.
4. This was the condition of the participants of the crusade with the Prophet.
5. Life, as an apostate, simply leads to hell, and the more he lives the greater is the punishment under intense apostasy.
6. In the name of God at the Prophet's command, e.g. Harris bin Abu Obeida, in the Battle of Badr, Hamza in the Battle of Uhud, and Ja'far-e-Tayyar in the Battle of Mutha, when Ali was spared at the Prophet's prayers.
7. viz. Ali.
8. The Quraish with Abu Sufyan at their heads and the companion Jews of revealed religion in their resentment.
9. In the person of Ali by their further participation in forcing the faithful on the battlefield.
10. By circulating through Gabriel in the habit of Whaya Kalbi, the Prophet's commands to assemble all the followers (i.e. forces) at the foot of the fort of Bani Kareeza to say the afternoon prayers there, informing the Prophet as well.
11. they laid a siege to the fort for three days.
12. Men of whom were massacred upon the decision of Sa'ad ibn Ma'az whom they had selected to decide their fate. Their wives and children were captivated and finally deported, as slaves to be sold in Bahrain from which horses and arms for war were purchased.
13. The Prophet had distributed booty of Khaiber amongst the participants of the crusade in which the Prophet's wives were left out, upon which they complained to him saying if he divorced them none would remarry them and their maintenance would be a question. This brought about Divine Wrath Who revealed to the Prophet about Divine Wrath Who revealed to the Prophet to cast them aside. He remained alone for 29 days in Um Ibrahim during which they incurred menses, when they were purified, the Prophet asked to divorce whomever he liked and retain whomever he liked as per Couplet 51 which is misplaced in this surah and ought to find its legitimate place as Um Salma was the first wife who refused to take divorce and others later followed her.

15.When Aysha entered into the Battle of the Camel, against Ali, the legitimate and universally elected successor of the Prophet, as per rulings then acknowledged, she was reminded of this couplet. She said, “It was her fate and misfortune.”

16.Same order applies to the faithful women.

17.by granting faith and the Prophet’s service.

19.while you send blessings on the Prophet and his family.

20.This is the reason why the faithful, under excitement, doubt or forgetfulness pray mercy for the Prophet and his Immaculate family to extricate themselves from impending situation.

21.The word “sent” gives an inkling to Divine Lights being heaven born.

22.i.e. Divine Light. Just as a light removes darkness, so these Divine Lights remove misguidance of the public into light of guidance. Looking at them is as though looking at God for guidance.

23.Note: “Giver of tidings” has been briefly replaced by an “Evangelist” in this translation at places.

24.This was revealed in Mecca.

25.In excess of four wives.

26.Daughters of uncles and aunts of both sides.

27.Known as Nika-e-Hibba)

28.This couplet should have found its proper place as 29 as remarked before. Explanation for 51 Love for worldly embellishment resulted in Divine Commands to His Prophet to divorce them whom he chose. Thus this is also applicable to the faithful women who if they insist on worldly adorations shall be liable to divorce.

This usually occurs in marriages under courtship, under infatuation and blinding influences of which the couple deliberately decided to marry.

A woman who is ignorant and stupid, or one who has simply learned to drum on the piano, to paint a few horrible pictures ad do a little embroidery cannot properly be regarded as one suited for important relations of life. Others, pretty as flowers, pure as snow, sweet as the gentle breath of spring, education, and refined, yet of no earthly use either to themselves or anyone else. As wives and help mates, they can never be anything but worthless. They will make a home for no man, but as a class will build club houses as refuges for many. A farmer cannot afford to marry one hating the country. When two people of dissimilar tastes and purposes are yoked together for life, how can there be anything other than a consequent conflict of interests and consequent unhappiness.

A good wife should be a good housekeeper in the first instance. Those who are constantly seeking diversion and entertainment, are absorbed by empty and exacting demands of what is called society, who are extravagant in dress contribute nothing either to happiness or comfort, and are practically worthless. She should be able to live with you in the midst of every day burdens and self-demands, be able to live contentedly and happily on little, fearing and trusting God, giving herself in loving devotion to her husband and family. Hence, such marriages are liable to divorce sooner or later.

29.The Prophet married 15 in all, of whom two he divorced Umra and Shanba and out of the 13 he lift nine widows viz, Sowda, Umm Salma, Aisha, Hafza, Zainab Bint Hajash, Umm Habiba, Maimoona, Juvara and Safia. The four who died were Khadija Bint Khulid, Zainab Bint Khazima, Abi Umeyya and Zainab bint Umais. Besides Mariya and Raihena were among the honoured females gifted slaves.

30.Even after the resurrection when the 12th Divine Light shall avenge.

31.Tradition goes on to say their corpses shall be hung on the dry tree and people shall be asked to disown fealty to them, and God shall try, as He tried followers of Samry, by turning the tree, on which they are suspended green, upon which their followers will refuse to respond to the Divine Light's requisition to disown fealty to them, and they shall be similarly treated, i.e. slain.

32.And Divine Lights after him.

34.Simply adhering to the seven cardinal virtues and avoiding the seven deadly sins (without faith) as a pure moralist, cannot guarantee salvation, as preponderatory condition to salvation is "Faith) without which it is association whether (1) a man may be in the highest degree a scientist but having failed to recognize god, or (2) by an epicurean promising all worldly comforts, or (3) a philosopher of the calibre of Socrates, or seven sages of the world, or (4) a puritan having cleansed his outside acts for moral attainment, or (5) a preacher having religious ethical principles for imparting without acting or (6) may be an industrialist of extreme charity without submitting to Divine discipline, in benefitting the religious paupers, unless she admits to true unitary theocracy.

35.of Divine Representation on Earth, i.e. of Divine Lights.

36.For having intentionally submitted to passion in accepting the Khilafat and thus falsified eternal punishment.

37.Who through ignorance were entrapped and repented immediately on discovery

Surah As-Saba, Chapter 34

In the Name of God the Compassionate, the Merciful

Verses 1 – 9

1. All praise is due to God for Whom is ownership of whatever is in the heavens and earth and so is praise to Him in Eternity and he is Wise and Knowing.
2. He know what enters the earth and what comes out of it and what falls from the clouds and what is rising therein and He is Merciful and Forgiving.
3. And infidels said, “The Day of Reckoning is not going to come.” Say, “Rather, by my Providence, it shall be brought about by the knower of secretes from Whom not the tiniest in the heavens and earth is hidden nor smaller than that nor bigger than that but is on a distinct record.¹
4. So He may reward the faithful who have acted righteously, for whom is forgiven and honourable provision.
5. And those who try to belittle Our Commands are those for whom is intense punishment.

6. And you will see those who are gifted with knowledge, will admit of what has been revealed to you is true, and guides its followers on a mighty and admirable path.

7. And the infidels said, “Shall we point out to you a person who informs of you being raised alive after being broken to pieces?

8. Has he libelled God by fabricating falsehood or is he mad? Rather, those who do not believe in eternity are doomed to punishment on the Day of Judgment, being in great misguidance in this world.

9. Have they not seen in their forefront (present time) and behind (pastime) Divine disaster, as a result of human sins from the heavens and earth? If We wanted We would have buried them into the earth or brought from the heavens meteorites (over them) verily, in this are signs for the obedient devotee.

Moral

Bodily notes will suffice.

Verses 10 – 21

10. Verily had We endowed on David a mighty grace, We had commanded mountains to be with him and birds too, while he glorified Us. And We had made iron mild onto the hands.

11. And We had given him commands to frame armour out of it, keeping in view proportion of every part and keep on acting righteously, for verily I am watching what you are doing.

12. And We had commanded the winds to be at the beck and call of Solomon, when he completed with wind a month's tour in the morning and similarly in the evening, and for his sake, We had rung molten copper into a gallery in a mine and We had commanded spirits to serve him and he who would disobey him would meet with fiery punishment from Us.

13. They are doing whatever Solomon desired construction of huge buildings, artistic in feature and huge cisterns and rock cut vats and We had ordered the family of David to be grateful to Us, although few among My creatures are grateful.

14. And when We fixed the period of death of Solomon, no one knew of it except until white ants which fed on his (wooden) rod. When his corpse fell down, the spirits came to know of his death when they said, "Had we known long before we would not have been involved in a disgraceful punishment.

15. Verily in the case of the men of Sheba there are signs in their abode. There were two series of gardens on either side, right and left, and they were commanded to eat Providential fruits and thank the Providence, fine town for residence with God, as Merciful over them.

16. But they disobeyed, so We inundated their lands with huge floods which resulted in exchange of fruitful gardens with two other gardens, bearing bitter fruits with tamarisk (evergreen tree) with here and there lotus trees.

17. This is Our punishment for their ungratefulness, and do we ever punish alike, except the ungrateful?²

18. And We had settled such auspicious society between them and a group, who used to consult them.³

19. They prayed to Us, “Oh our God, make us far apart from them”⁴ and thus they became ungrateful so We fulfilled their desire and distracted them thoroughly. Verily in this are signs for the patient and the grateful.

20. Verily had the devil rightly guessed about them, when he said, “All would follow him except a group of the faithful.”

21. Over whom he has no control, but We had to establish by distinguishing between those who believed in eternity, and those who doubted.⁵ and your Providence is circumspective.

Moral

This has been the practice of all secular States, bearing action on morality without religion which is another name for decency in sin. It is bound to wither and die like a seed, sown on stony ground or among thorns. Reason and experience both forbid us to expect that national morality shall prevail in exclusion of religious principles.

It will change as per convenience. We stated with democracy then jumped to the Republic and now are we devising socialistic structure of our choice. Let us see whither we en. Does religion i.e. (theocracy) change with circumstances? Islam will prevail until the Day of Reckoning and Divine Commands shall remain inviolable, when duly constituted Theocracy, under the 12th Divine Light is restored, after the failure of all human efforts in effacing it.

Verses 22 – 30

22. Say, “Call unto them of whom you are confident, barring God,” although they have not the slightest hold on anything in the heavens and earth nor have they any share in their creation, nor are they anyway to assist the Creator.

23. Their intercession before God will of no avail except that of one (i.e. Divine Light for the sinful faithful) permitted by Him, and until their distraction of their heart (subsides) or disappears (on reckoning plain) when they will ask one another, “What did your Creator say?” They will say, “Truth He said.” He is Mighty and Omnipotent.

24. Say, “Who provided you from clouds and earth?” Say, “God.” Then (ask them again) who is on guidance you are they and who is an open misguidance?

25. Say, “You will not be questioned on our sins nor we on yours.

26. “God shall assemble us and decide on justice. He is best at (giving) decision.”

27. Say, “Show me him whom you have equalized by associating with God.

Never. You shall never be able to do so. Rather, He is Almighty and Wise.”

28. We have not sent you but a messenger on all humanity and giver of tidings and a warner, although most do not know.

29. And they ask you when this promise is going to be fulfilled.

30. Say, “The Day of Reckoning is fixed for you and when it matures neither will it be delayed nor will it be quickened a second.”

Moral

Bodily notes are enough.

Verses 31 – 36

31. And the infidels swore they will never believe in the Qur'an and previous revelations would. You would have seen them when made to stand before their Creator, how one would accuse the other. The subordinates will address their worldly bosses, “If it were not for you, we would have embraced faith.”

32. When the haughty, in reply would say, “What! Did we prevent you from embracing faith when it came to you? Rather, you yourselves were culprits.”

33. The weak will say to the haughty, “By raising false propaganda, day and night (against God) you forced us to associate you with God” and would hide penance, on seeing the punishment, and We shall chain their necks in the flaming fire. Can there be any other reward for their infidelity?

34. We did not send any warner in any township but the wealthiest thereof started to disbelieve Our Prophets.

35. And said, “We are richer in property and children and shall therefore not be punished.”

36. Say, “My Providence expands provision on whomsoever He likes and contracts likewise, although most do not understand.

Moral:

(34) Cursed be that wealth (without religion) which leads one to disobey God and Divine Lights. Blessed is that (personal or national) which recognizes its real owner, God, the Almighty, and distributes as He desires, without disobedience unto Him, among His creatures individually or socially to equalize physical, mental, or spiritual inequality.

Verses 37 – 45

37. Neither your property nor your children will bring you to Our close proximity, except him, who embraced the faith and acts righteously, to such We shall doubly reward his acts (having contributed to Divine cause) and he will be safe in a lofty chamber of paradise.

38. Whereas those who tried to belittle Our Commands⁶ shall be presented for punishment.

39. Say, “My Providence expands provision on whomever of His creatures He likes, and contracts otherwise. And whatever you spend you shall inherit. He is best at providing.

40. And the day We assemble you all We shall demand of the angels if they were the people whom were they worshipping.

41. They will say, “Pure is Your nature, You alone are our Lord. We have nothing to do with them.” Rather, they were worshipping spirits, most believing in them.

42. On that day none will benefit nor injure anybody and We shall tell the disobedient to savour of hellish punishment for their falsification.

43. And when Our open Commands were being read out to them, they said, “He is nothing but a person who intends to prevent you from worshipping what your forefathers did.” They say he is nothing but an impostor and these infidels whenever Truth⁷ came to them and said, “It was nothing but an open magic.”

44. And We did not sent to these (infidels of Mecca) any revelation before this on reading of which they were falsifying you, nor did We send to them any Prophet after Jesus (and before your arrival) who commanded them to associate others with Me or falsify you.

45. And their predecessors also had falsified the Prophet of their age, although these infidels of Mecca have not a fraction of wealth and power of what We had given them, but they falsified my Prophet. See what has been the result of My displeasure.

Moral

Clear.

Verses 46 – 54

46. Say, “I advise you to supplicate Him alone, singly and jointly, and contemplate your companion (Prophet) is not mad. He is simply warning you against the impending intense punishment.

47. Say, “What I ask of you as a reward (for the attachment to Divine Lights) is for your own good, and my reward is on God Who is witness to all.

48. Say, “My God, the Knower of secrets instils truth in every heart (when it has to face falsehood).

49. Say, “Truth has come and falsehood cannot either make its stand or retreat.

50. Say, “If I am misguided I shall suffer on that account and if I am guided, it is due to the revelation of my Providence, Who is certainly Hearing.

51. Would you had seen them when they shall turn back distracted and they will not have any chance to escape and will be arrested.

52. When they will say they have embraced faith in Divine Light, but of what avail that faith shall be then at such a distant date?

53. Although they have disbelieved him from the very beginning, and were guessing about him from afar.

54. A bar will intercept between them and their desires, as was done in the past. Verily they all had been in destructive doubt.

Moral

From Couplets 51 onwards to 54, presages emergence of Sufiyani marching to Damascus sending forces to Baghdad and Medina where in former place, they will kill 3000, commit fornication and kill 300 of the Bani Abbas chiefs and advancing to Kufa destroying its neighbourhood, shall face their opponent.

The second party going to Medina will lay it waste for three days and nights, and will march towards Mecca when under Divine commands, at Baida, they will be sunk underground by Gabriel, leaving two of the tribe of Jhenia.

- 1.This implicates those who entertain as (tenet) “theory of Karma” wherein the sum of a person’s actions, which is carried forward, from one existence to another, and in so doing, it determines its character, for good or bad, in Hinduism and Janism. There is a belief, a person’s individual soul inherits and passes on the load of Karma (fate) improved or transgressed, as the case may be. In Budhism, however, there is no conception of a permanent personality but the Karma is attached, in some way, to elements physical and mental, which are carried on, from birth to birth, until the power which holds them together is disposed in the attainment of Nirvana (salvation).
 - 2.Solomon had built a dam, he constructed two canals on the right and left flank, which water the whole township of Yemen. People later on were plunged into pleasures, like dancing and similar illegal musical entertainments, which demoralized them as a result of which, under Divine Wrath, the Bund was breached by rats, created therein and many lives were lost. Surah Al-Fatir, Chapter 35

In the Name of God the Compassionate, the Merciful

Verses 1 – 7

- 1. Thanks are due to God, Creator of the Heavens and Earth and who sends angels having wings, two, three and four and many more as He likes. Verily God is Omnipotent.

- 2. Whatever mercy He showers on humans, none can stop and whatever He does withhold, none can release after He has withheld it. He is Mighty and Wise.

- 3. O you people, remember the Divine bounties on you. Is there any other Creator than God Who provides you from clouds and earth. There is no other God but He. Where are you then being led away?”

- 4. And if they falsify verily have they done with the previous Prophets and reversion of all of them is unto God.

- 5. Oh you humans, promise of God is true, let not worldly life deceive you and let not the crafty devil play you false.¹

6. Verily the devil is your enemy and takes him so. Verily he and his army invite you to be members of Hell.

7. Those who disbelieve (in eternity) shall have intense punishment for them, whereas the faithful who act righteously have forgiveness (on penance) and a great reward for virtues.

Moral

Bodily notes with study of reference to previous Surah will suffice.

Verses 8 – 14

8. What! Is he whose evil actions eulogize him and who appreciates them (can be like him who is otherwise)? Verily God deprives him of guidance whom He likes and guides whom He likes, so you do not be sorry for them. Verily God is fully acquainted with their actions.

9. God is He Who sends currents of winds which carry clouds, feeds dry land which are enlivened after decay, so shall you be raised alive.²

10. He who desires honour (real and eternal) on earth should know all honour is due to Him and virtuous deeds, void of association and insincerity rise unto Him (are appreciated by Him), and intense punishment is for them, who under intrigue, act evil, which shall ultimately fail them³.

11. God is He Who created you all of sperm, then coupled you to a mate, and no woman conceives or delivers the child but He has knowledge thereof, and none becomes aged or dies young, but has their history recorded with Him and certainly this is easy for Him.

12. And such two seas are not alike: one saline and the other of fresh water, sweet to the taste, although from both of them you get provision (fish) and take out pearls for wearing, and you see the ship floating in the sea, piercing though it to enable you to seek livelihood through His Grace so you be grateful to Him.

13. It is He Who enters the night into the day and vice versa and has set in motion the sun and the moon a source of your subsistence under His control, for a definite period, and such is God , your Providence, Whose is the kingdom inclusive of the entire creation, and those whom you pray, besides Him, do not own even the rind of a date stone.

14. And if you cry unto them, they will not hear you and even if they heard, they will not reply and will disclaim your association on Reckoning Day, and none can inform you so correctly as God the Knowing.

Moral

Clear.

Verses 15 – 26

15. Oh you people, you are dependent on God, and God alone is Self-sufficient and Praiseworthy.

16. If He wills, He can destroy you and replace you otherwise.

17. And this is not difficult for God.

18. None is going to bear the load of others and if any heavily loaded will call for assistance to lighten his load, he will not get it, even from his relations. You can frighten those who are afraid of God unseen, and are steady at prayers, and he who shall purify self of sins shall do credit to self, and reversion of all is unto God.

19. And the blind and the seeing are not alike.

20. Nor those under darkness (of misguidance, i.e. who are after worldly pleasures) and those in light (i.e. who are on guidance and avoiding sins) are not alike.

21. Nor those under shade and sunshine.

22. Nor the living and the dead. Verily God makes audient whom He wills and you cannot make those audient who are in the grave (i.e. blind-hearted).

23. You are merely a warner.

24. Verily have We sent you with the truth4and as a giver of tidings and a warner there is not a single tribe but has a warner for it.

25. If they falsify you, they have done similarly in the past. Prophets came to them with miracles and enlightened Texts

26. and then I arrested the infidels, how severe was my seizure.

Moral

God has pointed out one of His most important attributes of being Self-sufficient and Indispensable to the creation. Divine guidance depends upon Divine awe and constancy at prayers.

Verses 27 – 37

27. Have you not seen God sending rain from clouds with which We produce fruit of various colours? And from the mountains are cut roads, white and red, and in various other colours and others are black.

28. And from men and animals of like colour only the learned amongst men fear God. Verily God is Mighty and Forgiving.

29. Verily who reads the Text and says prayers and spends what We have endowed upon secretly and openly in Our name, he is hopeful of a business, which shall never fail him.

30. So God shall fully reward him and enhance it out of His grace⁵. Verily He is forgiving and Appreciative.

31. And oh you Prophet, the Book We have revealed unto you is true and confirming the preceding Texts. Verily God is acquainted with His creatures and guards them all.

32. Then we deposited Our text in whom We chose from Our creatures, of whom some are disobedient⁶ others do recognize and are devotees, and the remaining surpass the devotees, being Divine Lights themselves, and this is a Mighty Grace in their favour.⁷

33. Who will remain in Paradise of the highest grade, wherein they will have golden bracelets and ornaments of pearls and silk dress.

34. And they will thank God for having removed from them every kind of pain and sorrow and will say, “Verily our Providence is Highly Forgiving and Appreciative.”

35. Who brought us out of His Grace to such eternal places, wherein there is neither grief nor fatigue.

36. And those who became infidels have hell for their abode, wherein they shall neither have death (to put an end to their agony) nor mitigation of punishment being alive, and for every ungrateful infidel, do We reserve like punishment.

37. Wherein they will be howling, “Oh our Providence, take us out from it so we may do virtues vice our vices, we committed in the past.” What! Did We not give them life enough to make an advice therein? When the Warner had come to them with an advice to whom they were indifferent. So better let them taste the punishment and there shall be none to assist the disobedient (under intercession).

Moral

32 to 35 give special significance of Grade of Fatima's lineage.

Verses 38 – 45

38. Verily God knows the secret and open of the Heavens and Earth and is acquainted fully with the secrets of the hearts.

39. It is he Who made you successors on Earth (of your predecessors). He who denies unto Him results of such infidelity shall lie on him, and the result of infidelity will not enhance except losses to them alone.

40. Say, “Do you see your associators whom you, barring God, pray creating anyone on Earth?” If so, show to Me or have they any share in the creation of the heavens or have We given the Books, on the authority of which are they laying their claims? Nothing of the sort rather, these disobedient are simply misleading by holding out false promises

41. Verily God has held over existence of the heavens and earth from their destruction⁸, when once they are off, none else can support them. Verily He is Forbearing and Forgiving.

42. They⁹ swore by God if any warner would come to them, verily they would be more guided than their predecessors¹⁰, and when the warner came to them, it did not intensify, except their infidelity.

43. And prided on Earth wherewith they started intriguing and intrigue does not play false, but with its own agent. What! Are they awaiting treatment of their predecessors? They will not find any change in Divine treatment and neon can avert it (i.e. Divine disaster).

44. Do they not move above the earth and look out what has been the end of the preceding generations? They were stronger than them, and God is not such as can be over-powered by anyone of the heavens or earth. Verily He is Omniscient and Omnipotent.

45. Had God punished everybody (immediately) of his (sinful) action, He would not have left any creeping on earth, but He has given them time to a definite period (during which to rectify) and when they will mature (i.e. time of punishment) will then God (decide) knowing His creatures.

Moral

Clear.

1.Devil's deceptions were briefly stated in the previous Surah in Couplet 71. The so-called deceptions affecting the learned men are graded into seven classes, as per the grades of Hell by the sixth Divine Light viz.

- (1) those learned who reserve to themselves their knowledge without imparting to others,
- (2) those who are enraged at others advising men,
- (3) those who use their knowledge in royal courts debarring the public,
- (4) those who adopt tyrannical ways and are enraged when these defects are pointed out to them,
- (5) those who collect and criticize doctrines of various faiths to demand public admiration,
- (6) those seated on the throne of decision, challenge others while they are ignorant themselves , and
- (7) those finding fault with others, waste their time in ridiculing them.

A really leaned man is ever gloomy, adopts night waking a compulsion, is busy with finding fault of himself, to rectify his defects, and is ever importuning to God and knowing the qualities of men of his time, avoids their society, ad having fixed a stipulated period with self after contracting an agreement with it, keeps a watch, calls for accounts for its failure, demanding its rectification daily, and punishing for its failure.

2.After the first siren, shall the liquid of the sea, saline in nature, rise under evaporation, into clouds raining of which shall enliven the oldest corpses.

3.due to disbelief, when they shall be condemned to hell.

4.i.e. Glorious Qur'an.

5.i.e. he shall be entitled to intercede.

6.by not recognizing Divine Lights.

7.This Couplet especially applies to the lineage of Fatima and may commonly include 1) those who hover around their passion (material world), 2) those who hover around the reason (intellectual world) and 3) those who hover around their Creator God the Almighty (spiritual).

8.on account of His Lights.

9.i.e. infidel Qoraish.

10.Jews and Christians.

Surah Ya-Sin, Chapter 36

In the Name of God the Compassionate, the Merciful

Note: This Surah is known as the heart of the Glorious Qur'an and as blood circulating the human body passes through the heart of the body, every reference of the Text can be traced into this Surah.

Verses 1 – 12

1. *Yasin.*¹

2. By the Glorious Qur'an of Divine philosophy.

3. Verily are you one of the Prophets²

4. on a straight path.

5. This Glorious Qur'an has been revealed by the Almighty, the Merciful.

6. To warn the tribe whose ancestors have not, so far, been warned to their negligence.

7. Most shall not embrace faith.³

8. Verily have We round their necks thrown manacles, reaching their chins, whereby they cannot raise their necks.⁴

9. Thus have We erected a wall in front of them and in the rear of them and thus have We lined their hearts with curtains on account of which they cannot see (appreciate Truth).

10. It is all the same whether you warn them or desist, they are not going to embrace faith.

11. Verily, can you warn those only who follow Divine Lights, and fear God unseen, give them only tidings of forgiveness and mighty rewards.⁵

12. Verily shall We raise the dead⁶ and the misguided (in future) by enlightening them to guidance and record their preceding acts⁷ and those apparent acts marks of which are left behind them⁸ and everything have We reserved in evident Divine Light, who shall testify to their deeds on the Day of Reckoning.

Verses 13 – 32

13. Relate to them the history of the villagers of the Town (of Antioch) when Our Prophets came to them.

14. When We sent them two Prophets, they falsified both of them, then We reinforced them with a third one, when they said, “We are come to you as Prophets.”⁹

15. Villagers (in opposition) said, “You are men like God, the Compassionate had not sent anyone as a Prophet. You are merely liars.”

16. They said, “Our Providence knows we are definitely sent to you.

17. “And for us is only to transmit the message openly.”

18. The villages said, “We draw on ill-omen from you, if you do not desist, we shall stone you to death, and certainly shall befall upon you punishment from us.”

19. They (Prophets) said in reply, “Let your ill-omen be with you. You taunt us for our advising you. Rather, you are a transgressing tribe.”

20. And from the extreme corner of the town came running a man¹⁰ saying, “Oh my tribe, follow the Prophets.

21. “Follow them who do not ask a reward but they are themselves guided.”

Verses 22 – 32

22. And “What is up with me in which I should not pray to One Who created me ad to Whom shall I have to revert.

23. “Am I to adopt such gods, barring Him, if God, the Compassionate, intended to inure me, their (i.e. idols) intercession will be of no avail to me, in my rescue.

24. “Under such circumstances I should be left in open misguidance.

25. “So, lo sir, I embrace faith in your (Really Unique) Providence.”¹¹

26. When he will be asked to enter Paradise he would say, “Would my tribe had known of my fate.

27. “Why my Providence forgave me and exalted me.”¹²

28. And after his martyrdom, to punish his tribe, We need neither send any forces of angels¹³ nor are We going to send anymore.

29. For them a simple shriek of Gabriel would suffice for their destruction.

30. Alas, on my creation! Not a single Prophet came to them but they ridiculed him.

31. Do they not realize how many generations preceding them have We destroyed? And who are not going to come back to this world?¹⁴

32. And there is no go but all of them shall be assembled before Us on Reckoning Day.¹⁵

Moral

Clear.

Verses 33 – 50

33. (As a matter of fact) the dried up soil is a sign (on the ground of reflection) for them. We enliven it and grow out of it provision which they eat.

34. We turn out gardens of dates and grapes and make streams run therein.

35. so they may take of its fruits and products thereof, by their hands. Will they not be grateful?

36. Pure is He Who created a pair of everything of what the earth grows and of themselves and other things which they do not know.¹⁶

37. And the (approach of night, too, serves the sign, whence We bring out a day when they are left in the dark¹⁷

38. And the sun revolves (rising and setting) and is marching on to a definite goal, under the design of the Omnipotent and the Omniscient.¹⁸

39. And the moon is one of the signs for whom We have fixed stages until it attains its pristine line, like a dry branch of a date tree.

40. Neither the sun can dare overtake, nor the night can overtake the day, although they all are having their revolution in their respective orbits.

41. And for them, an extra sign¹⁹ is We carried them (as an issue of their ancestors in a loaded ark (of Noah).

42. And (We) have created for them like ships (airplanes) in which they are boarding.

43. If We desired, We could have crushed them when there would have been nobody to rescue them, nor would they have been set free.

44. But, for Our mercy, to let them enjoy for a limited period²⁰.

45. And when they are asked to fear God²¹ and act so they may be mercified.

46. Not a sign of Divine signs comes to them from their Providence but they turn away from it.

47. And when they are asked to spend in the name of God, out of Divine provision, the infidels tell the faithful, “Shall we feed those whom, if God willed, would have fed.” You are, in this idea of yours, labouring under misguidance.²²

48. They ask you when Judgment Day is going to come if you are true.

49. They do not think it will be a single trumpet call which will seize them all to death and they will be left in litigation.

50. They will have no opportunity to make a will nor to revert to their family.

Religious Moral

(1) Regarding work in Couplet 38 above it may be noted as ultimate responsibility on Reckoning Day, is personal and not collective. Man becomes a custodian of property he collects in this world, by his efforts, beyond his own requirements for others and shall be held up for its misuse by the latter and shall not be rewarded, if well spent (except in religious trusts, which are his own acts, as having spent and handed over to God. Yet, how few realize they cannot misuse them.

(2) Now efforts in its collection may be (1) legal, (2) doubtful, or (3) illegal. If legal, he will have to account for it. If doubtful he will be censured. If illegal he will be punished.

(3) Worldly property, before God, is like a flesh of a dead animal. Human efforts, therefore, in its collection, should be limited to the minimum so if it is legally acquired, he will be classed as pious, else censured or punished.

(4) Therefore, in choosing to employ efforts, physical or mental for worldly or eternal affairs, he should prefer eternal affairs, thinking it is his last day, and put off worldly affairs, thinking he is going to live forever.

Verses 51 – 83

51. And when the second trumpet will blow, they will come out of their graves and run to present themselves before their Providence,

52. saying, “Woe to us, we have been raised from our graves.”²³

53. This is the promise of our God, the Compassionate, held out to us, and about which the Prophet had given the (correct) news.

54. On the Day none shall be ill-treated nor paid beyond his due.²⁴

55. Verily members of Paradise on that Day will be enjoying²⁵.

56. They, with their companions²⁶ will be sitting on couches under the shade, reclining against pillows.

57. Wherein they shall have fruit and whatever they shall desire.

58. They will be haled with peace from their Providence, the Merciful.

59. When a crier will call out, “Oh you criminals, be apart today” (and they shall pass to hell).

60. Oh you sons of Adam, did I not command you not to be a devil’s creature (by following him)?

61. And pray obey in all affairs to Me alone. This is a right way.²⁷

62. Verily did the devil misguide many of you (My creation) have you no common sense?

63. This is a hell, now, for you of which you were warned in the past.

64. Get into it today (for your sceptical deeds).

65. On that day, We shall seal their mouths²⁸ and demand testimony of their organs against their denial of their sins.

66. If We willed, We could have sealed their eyes too, and they would have wandered about in seeking the way, and where could they have found it.

67. And if We willed, We could have changed their physical features²⁹ whereby they could neither have gone ahead, nor trace behind.

68. And We retrograde his (i.e. man's) nature, when We turn him old. Do you not understand so much?³⁰

69. We have not taught him (the Prophet) poetry, nor is it deserving of him. This is merely an advice and the Glorious Qur'an.³¹

70. To warn those who have a faithful (sensible) heart and a proof (to condemn to Hell).

71. Do you not see We have created unaided, animals for their benefit?

72. And subjected them to their obedience. Some of whom they ride (the horse, the mule, etc.) and others they eat (the camel and the goat).

73. And in them, there are many advantages (their skin) and drink. Do they not acknowledge Our gratitude?

74. But they adopt worshipping other gods than the real (unique) God, so as to intercede on their behalf.

75. They will not plead any intercession whatsoever, although they gather in throngs to worship them.

76. Grieve not, you Prophet, at their talk. Verily do we know what they hide and what they expose.

77. Does not man notice We created him from a sperm and he started litigating (as soon as he became strong on being created alive)?

78. And put forth before Us an example, forgetting his own creation saying, “Who will recreate me when once my bones were reduced to powder?”

79. Say, “He will recreate Him Who created him first (when he has not existed at all) and he is Omniscient.

80. Who creates fire from green trees with which you light your fire?

81. What! Is He Who created the heavens and the earth not mighty enough to create (tiny creatures like them), aye, aye! He can, certainly, create beings, Mighty and Knowing (is He).

82. His Commands (regarding creation) is nothing but, whenever, what he wills, regarding creation of anything is to say “BE” and there it is existent.

83. Pure is His Nature under Whose control lies entire spiritual existence of everything, and to him is reversion of all.

1. It is also the name of the Prophet. Oh hearer of revelation.

2. All Prophets have been shown and instructed to tread the Divine way, thus true conception of Divinity and cult propounded by them alone, if followed, will lead to salvation, else it is association leading to destruction. Thus, Prophets are Divine Lights, i.e. are torches, leading men from (the darkness of) misguidance to guidance. Revelation is therefore an essential concept for true religion. There is no living religion which in its own view is the mere product of human reflection.

This is the reason why Buddhism, Jainism, Confucianism, Theosophy, based on Karma, to establish universal brotherhood in faiths. Free masonry believing in the Supreme Being, Deen-e-Ilahi of Akbar the Great Sikhism of Guru Nanak, Taoism in China, Shintoism, the indigenous religion of Japan, maintaining Nature worship and loyalty to a ruling dynasty cannot be rightly classed religions because revelation steps in where reason fails as with metaphysics. None exuded from God either of matter, soul, or forces, thus dispelling ancient Phallic Worship and ancient worship of natural phenomena, such as the sun, the moon, thunder, lightening, rain, etc.

The Holy Trinity of Christianity and Hinduism where Brahma is supposed to be the Supreme creature, and Vishnu is the Preserver and Siva is the destroyer as

His incarnation, although Arya Samaj do not believe in idol worship and Brahma Samaj believe in one God, but are not free from the tenet of Karma.

3.In Divine Lights as per Divine decree.

4.This is allegorical with the following Couplet and it means due to their ignorance, infidelity, jealousy, and consequent enmity, they cannot afford to appreciate Divine Lights in their real position and thus no advice can prove fruitful in benefitting them.

5.Thus effective warning i.e. guidance is limited only to the followers of Divine Lights and those who fear God unseen.

6.on Resurrection or on Day of Judgment.

7.which bear ne proof of existence now apparently.

8.e.g. in virtue by wells, mosques, tree plantations and vices in misguiding literature.

9.Two of them were arrested and were imprisoned by the king. When the third approached the Court, (he gained round the king and asked the latter regarding the two prisoners, and when he informed, suggested to the king to test them. When called upon, they prayed and healed (1) a natural blind, (2) a natural lame, (3) enlivened the only son of the king who had died long ago, and who recognized them, having prayed for him, upon which the king and his subjects embraced faith.

10.Habib, a carpenter who was secretly a Muslim but later upon the king's conversion to faith of Islam declared himself a Muslim openly.

11.You shall testify to this effect on Reckoning Day. He was persecuted and stoned to death and angels took his soul to Paradise. (1) He is known as Mo'min-Ale-Yasin, who with (2) Mo'min-e-Ale Pharaoh and (3) Ali is the third are three Siddiqs only, of whom Ali is superior to the remaining (1 and 2).

12.Note: Faith in God and crusade in Divine way, with life and wealth (which includes material, intellectual and spiritual gift has been the cause of forgiveness and exaltation.

13. As We did for Prophet Mohammad in Badr and of Hunian as a special privilege.

14. Incarnation is thus falsified. They will be held up on Reckoning day.

15. When justice shall be dispensed among them for their deeds in this world.

16. The germ coming down from clouds, germinates in soil from which are produced fruits or vegetables, eaten by men and animals, out of which issue in birth, i.e. what is grown from the soil is unknown to them, though laboured or worked by them. Similarly is germinating on mountains or beneath the sea.

17. This is allegorical, i.e. passing away of a Prophet (Divine Light) was a calamity drowning his followers in misguidance.

Note: The present age of disturbance is a calamity when the world at large is looking out for a Divine Light (who under Divine Will is hidden) to solve the problems, in spite of philosophers, scientists, and politicians being present, and who cannot remove the present chaos.

18. Such is the destiny of man. Simple indolent contemplation and brooding over emotions of piety, will not determine his worth. He has to work, as per desire of the Task Master God) to get over (1) vice, (2) poverty, (3) ill-health and petty vexations, (4) bickering which confront us daily. Hence, one has to work as though he has to live forever, and live as though he is going to die today (vide Moral).

19. of Our Providential magnanimity.

20. to see if they realize Our control over their destiny.

21. Keeping in view of their past sins and future awaiting punishment for them.

22. As God has tried His creatures in power and wealth so has He, in subjugation and poverty, whereby He may forgive the rich of their sins, by their charity and the poor by serving faithfully and honestly the rich.

23. For accounting, translated as per Divine Light.

24. In due dispense of Divine justice.

25.results of the precautions, i.e. piety they observed in the world.

26.nymphs and virtuous wives.

27.Thus We have true religion on one side observed by following the Divine Lights, leading to the Divine way, whether the Divine Light is represented in Moses, Jesus, or Mohammad or his authorized successors, and on the other side paganism whether as civilized barbarism and disguised animalism, as in the present hydrogen, atomic destructive age or otherwise, in divisions 70 or more formed on self-opinion. It was religion which awakened them to struggle for freedom, and constitute their laws, arts, and civilization based on it, with will of Supreme Deity, and Divine force, by sanction of eternal punishment. Today this very religion is neglected.

28.of the criminals in whose left hand will be their record.

29.converting them into pigs and monkeys.

30.When God has power to transfer living human nature, He can, as well, transfer the disobedient into monkeys and swines.

31.Poetry is usually based upon mental vision, whereas the Qur'an is based on Divine truth

Appendix 6: Advice of Imam Ali to his son Imam Hasan

An advice of First Divine Light, Ali, (peace be on him) to his eldest son, Hassan, Second Divine Light.

I begin in the name of Allah, the Merciful, the Compassionate.

1. Praise be to God and His Prophet. I appreciated turning away from the world, directing to Eternity and this prevented me from thinking of others, barring my own soul. My designs have revealed unto me facts since I gave up anxiety of others, barring my own. They have turned me against my passion, opened to me facts of my passing away, shown me ways to self-sacrifice, wherein there is no wasteful act, such as sport and gossip, and wherein there is no falsehood.
2. I admonish you to entertain Divine Awe. Serve God, perpetuate your heart in Divine Contemplation, hold fast His Commands, enliven your heart with admonitions, reduce it by piety and sobriety, strengthen it with faith, make it compliant with remembrance to death, fix it for extinction, show worldly trials, frighten it with changes and attacks of times (i.e. Partition and Police Action of Hyderabad), advance facts of past nations, remind trials of your predecessors, think of their relics and see what they have done and how they have transformed and where they have marched and made their homes.
3. You will realize leaving friends and relations. They are secluded and shortly you will be one amongst them. Now improve yourself and do not make eternity slave to your world. Give up discussion on what you do not know, give up treading the path leading to misguidance, because it is better to overcome adversities than to undergo later pains of misguidance. You are to order virtue, prevent vice with hand and strength, avoid evil, within limits of your range, deny self, as required (when people will deride and persuade you to change your attitude), be steady against worldly attacks and stand pains of trials in life, in maintain truth, acquire religious law, control your passion against unlawful with patience, for the latter is an excellent virtue of character and in all affairs, seek Divine protection.

Make your wants sincere to God, for with Him lies power of gift and withhold. Desire immensely virtue, it is no use learning what does not bring good, give up every act, false or doubtful or misleading. Know, He who kills, enlivens, and He who brings in adversities, removes them, too. The world is for prosperity, adversity and rewards of eternity and on what we do not know is created by God.

4. You were created ignorant, obtained knowledge through Him and to Him should you devote your entire life. Remember, none gave better information regarding the Creator than the Prophet. Hence, adopt his instructions and ways and means, and admit your non-entity and your dependence. Pray for guidance, fear His wrath, displeasure, for he has commanded nothing but virtue, and has forbidden noting but vice. He who realized the world is of a group, which is informed of a field where there is no water and vegetation, he will think of evergreen gardens and will bear difficulties of journeys, distasteful food, to reach the said destination, nor will feel these pains or think of debts to spend on luxuries, and will not prefer any to drawing him nearer to the destination.

5. The man cheated by this world resembles a group living in prosperity and informed of famine stricken area, he will not approve of any suggestion to give up existing pleasures. he will not consider separation.

6. Make your judgment a balance to weight you against others. Choose for others what you choose for you. Do not tyrannize others as you would not like to be tyrannized. Oblige as you would others would unto you, find fault with self, as you would pick with others, be satisfied with others as you would others be satisfied with you. Do not speak what you do not know, talk of what you know, do not relate regarding any acts which you would dislike others would attribute to you. Remember pride prevents reprobation and virtue, and is a disaster to reason. Try honestly in earning an honest penny and do not sit down out of pride, do not hoard up for posterity, and when you attain your aim, kneel down before god and fear Him immensely. Know the path before you is lengthy, difficulties are tremendous and you cannot become independent by acquiring fruitful gardens of provisions, for futurity, and while carrying this provision, you should be lightly loaded (i.e. sinless). Do not carry beyond your strength and help the needy during your being prosperous.

7. Remember well to climb this mountain, it is best to be lightly loaded, everything lawful of the world shall have to be accounted for, and everything unlawful will bring in punishment. Therefore, be content with little of lawful in more than you bear. (This is “piety” of Divine Lights”), this world, lest you be detained (quarantine “wukooft” idleness will bring on misery, seek out places which lie beyond this hill, as after death, there is no forgiveness of sin, nor shall you revert.

8. Remember, God has commanded, “Pray for requisitions” and acceptance thereof. Hence, pray for requisition and mercy. He has not forbidden penance on sin nor has He hastened punishment. He has not disgraced you; He has not closed against you the door of penance nor turned you hopeless against mercy. Rather, He has fixed a reward for avoiding commission of sins, He has counted your sin as a unit during accounting, and compensated reward ten times likewise. He has opened gates for turning away from sins when you cried at Him, and heard your cry. When you listen to Him He realized it, when you presented your desires, complained of your grievances, applied for removal of trials, prayed his assistance, prayed for merciful bounties, entirely under His control, viz increase in life restoration of health, extension in provisions, He handed over to you the keys of His treasures, and you prayed and He granted them all.

It is necessary therefore; you should not be disappointed at granting of prayers, if delayed because endowments depend on sincerity of intentions and many a time, delay results in increase of reward of the applicant and bounties become plentiful for the desirous. Many a time, turning you away from your desires is more advantageous to you and many a time granting requisition may result in destruction of your eternity. Hence, your requisition must be of a nature, fruits whereof shall last for you, and disaster whereof shall remain away, and not neither property can remain for neither you nor you for it. That is, separation is inevitable with frailty.

9. Know fully you are created for eternity and not for the world, for destruction and not for perpetuity, your creation is for death not for life in this world. You are present in frailty, you live where contentment should rule your wants, you are standing on a road leading to eternity, you are fated to death from which none can escape, nor even one who desires it. Thus, fear death, lest it may seize you while you are engaged in sins. You may be thinking of penance and death seizes you, when you will surely ruin yourself. Remember death immensely, of what shall suddenly fall upon you and shall meet you after death. Avoid greed of the world which you notice, lest you may be duped in it, for verily God has acquainted you with it, and even latter (world) has described itself to you. It has revealed its drawbacks.

10. Verily worldly people are barking dogs, are wild destructive animals, amongst which some bark at others, and rulers of the world devour those disgraced therein, the great of the world tyrannize the weak thereof. These are quadrupeds, a group whereof is hand and foot bound, is imprisoned and the other free. They have lost their senses and have ridden to march to unknown forests. These are wild animals entangled in dreadful forests, from which there is no escape, nor any guide to lead them, the world has tracked them to a blind alley. Their eyes are sewn by guiding angels. These are lost in misguidance and drowned in worldly pleasures. They have made the world their creator, and the world has commenced to play with them. They are engaged in its frailties' and forgotten what is to follow. Casually lightening glistens the darkness, as though a traveller reached his destination. He who hastens is likely to meet his comrades. Know fully he who has camels going on for day and night is journeying, whereas, otherwise, he is delaying it. Know fully thirst of desires shall never be quenched, and you shall not avoid death.

11. You are on the road on which your predecessors were. Hence, delay worldly desires which lead to collection of property, for every one desirous, do not attain his aim, nor delaying it, remains disappointed. Keep pure your passion, for God has forced you against kneeling before anybody except Him. Where is the advantage in acquiring property by foul means? What is the opulence attained under extreme pains? If you are capable of having none between you and God, do so. You shall have your reward and share. Remember God's minutest gift is by far superior to human extreme benefits, although all provisions are from Him, direct or otherwise.

12. Loss of your worldly acquisition owing to your silence is easier than loss sustained by talk on inquiry. Control your tongue, as it may involve you in creation of desires, leading to destruction. Bitters of disappointment are preferable to extenuation of hands to others. Engaging in work with self-respect and piety is better than acquiring riches with foul means. A man is a guard to his secrets, and an often time seeks what is destructive to him. The talkative always suffers. He, who undertakes, with sense and consideration, foresees. You keep company with the virtuous and by of them. Avoid evil society and unlawful earning, which is highly evil. Tyrannizing the weak and the aged (mother and father) is awful, when mild treatment likens harsh treatment, latter becomes middle course. Often times, medicine becomes disease and vice versa. Often time advice is sought from fools (their acts teach a lesson). Deny self-depending on desires for latter is capital of fools and wisdom demands recollection of experience and the best experience is what teaches you.

13. Hasten during leisure, lest latter turns into grief and anger, every seeker does not attain his aim nor every traveller returns. The greatest mischief is destruction or accompaniment to eternity, and to deny eternity. Every work has an end, possibly you attain shortly. Worldly industrialist or trader throws himself in destruction. Often, little property brings about plenty, due to excessive blessing. Treat the world and worldly people with consideration so long as they are obedient to you. Treat your brother affectionately. When he is indignant at you and turns against you, draw neat to him. When he distances you, treat him with gifts, when he miserly, when he behaves harshly treat him mildly, when he commits wrong, accept his excuse and forgive him.

Be a subordinate to him as though he is your master, specialize your advice for your religious brother, whether he takes it well or ill. Swallow your anger and wrath for I have not seen sweeter pewter than this. Considering the question of Eternity, he who behaves harshly with you, treat him mildly, for him turn docile. Oblige your enemy for it results in success by means of friendship or with enmity is sweetest. Do not entirely cut off connection of your brother, this may ultimately draw him near to you. Prove him true, as he thinks well of you. Do not waste your brother's rights.

14. See your wife and children do not ill-treat you. Do not turn to him who does not turn to you. It is better your yielding is not over-powered by your brother's tyranny and his ills do not over-power your obligations. Let not his tyranny appear great to you for he has ruined himself and done you good, and it is not fair to do him ill, who has done you good.

15. Remember, provision has two sides: one you look out and the other looking out for you, which will come to you, even if you do not attempt it. What bad habits are to be importuning during poverty and tyrannizing during independence! Nothing in the world is profitable to you until it aims at improving your eternity. If you are sorry for what is lost (feel so from the eternal point of view). If it is worldly, as it is gone, what is contradicting is come will also pass away. Why be sorry for the transitory loss or think of gaining it? Worldly affairs like or unlike, resemble each other. Do not be like one whom advice does no good, until extreme pains reach him, for the wise accepts advice with manners and learning, while animals need caning.¹

16. Avoid painful occurrences with fortitude and strength of certainty for he, who gave up the middle course, tyrannizes self. Everyone's comrade is like in his relation for he speaks and praises well during absence as well. Poor is he who has no friend, often a stranger owing to friendship becomes a relation, and vice versa. He who has exceeded the limits, finds difficult to get on. To him, who is contented with his provision, it will be last. Strongest recommendation is what you have sought before you and God. He who does not sympathize with you is your enemy, and occasionally disappointment with him brings your aim, when you expect destruction of your eternity at his hand, for his association and complying with his evil desires, will lead you to hell.

Postpone evils for you can hurry at any time. Denying obligation to the ignorant and the ungrateful is equivalent to obliging the sensible grateful. He who is restive with the times, owing to property and children, will be deceived thereby. Before inquiring difficulties and pleasures of travel, ascertain good and evil of the companion. Before inquiring of the house ascertain the nature of neighbours. Avoid jokes and consulting women, their intentions are weak and idle. Enforce Pardah, as it is a guard to their chastity. Do not give them liberty undertake your work. Do not let them recommend strangers, fix responsibility on each. Respect and oblige your family for they are your shoulders.

1. Provision is a fixed allotment, legally fixed by God. If it is spent under consideration and lawful earning leads to longevity of life, and when earned illegally being subject to passion (reduces by so much from legal destiny) it is soon wasted, with reduction of life, thus sum total remaining the same as per "Law-he-Mahfue" varying as per varying tendency annually as per Law-he-Mahv. That which is given is virtues is a gift for others, at his hands, for his deservedness and which is dissipated in vices is unlawful, spent by the vicious under him. If out of it, goes to virtue, goes to extend life. P.S. Advice, though addressed to his son, who is also Divine Taught, refers for general education, alike may references in Divine Text although addressed to the prophet, really meant for the public at large.
